THE LONG AND WINDING ROAD

"The journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step."

This saying encapsulates an idea that is thousands of years old, yet, it is as true today as it was 100,000 years ago. However, not many of us will make a journey of a "thousand" miles, at least not on foot, but, symbolically, we are making that journey right now. We are walking down the "long and winding road" that is life.

There are many problems that one can confront on a journey down a road. For example, just when we think that the road has straightened out, and we are about to get ahead, the road suddenly gets rough or curves sharply. Sometimes we are forced to slow down, and we may even fail to see the road ahead at all. Everytime we face a problem in life, the road curves, or runs smooth.

If we are to have a fruitful and educational journey on the "road", then we must be prepared to face all the problems, as well as the happy moments. How we overcome the problems, whether by faith in God as our ultimate goal, or by constantly working towards a more earthly goal, or by some inner strength, is developed in us early in life, at the very beginning of our journey.

This is where the Prep comes in.

We are just beginning the journey down the "long and winding road" when we come to the Prep, and it is here that we are molded and shaped into the young men that will walk with pride, confidence, and determination down this road. In four basic areas the Prep helps us grow and become strong- intellectually, physically, socially, and spiritually.

Intellectually, students at the Prep have been prepared by the wide variety of classes and clubs.

The English Department's classes, which can cover everything from the Iliad to Moby Dick, search for the aesthetic truths in literature. Knowledge of these truths, which many times deal with the problems of life, helps us to deal with others and the world around us. Also the English teachers develop in us the important skills of writing, which is so necessary in college and in the real world.

Furthermore, the publications, the Tower, Spectrum, and Pirate, give us an outlet to use these skills in a creative way.

The dedicated Mathematics teachers at the Prep also do a great deal to help us get ahead on the "road." Everything from the most basic formulae to the most complex functions is taught, and each teacher makes sure that they are understood by every student.

Also, just as the English Department has its publications, the Math Department has its Math Club and team, without which those students really interested in math would not have an outlet besides the classroom. Also, through the club, an active participation and enjoyment of math is fostered.

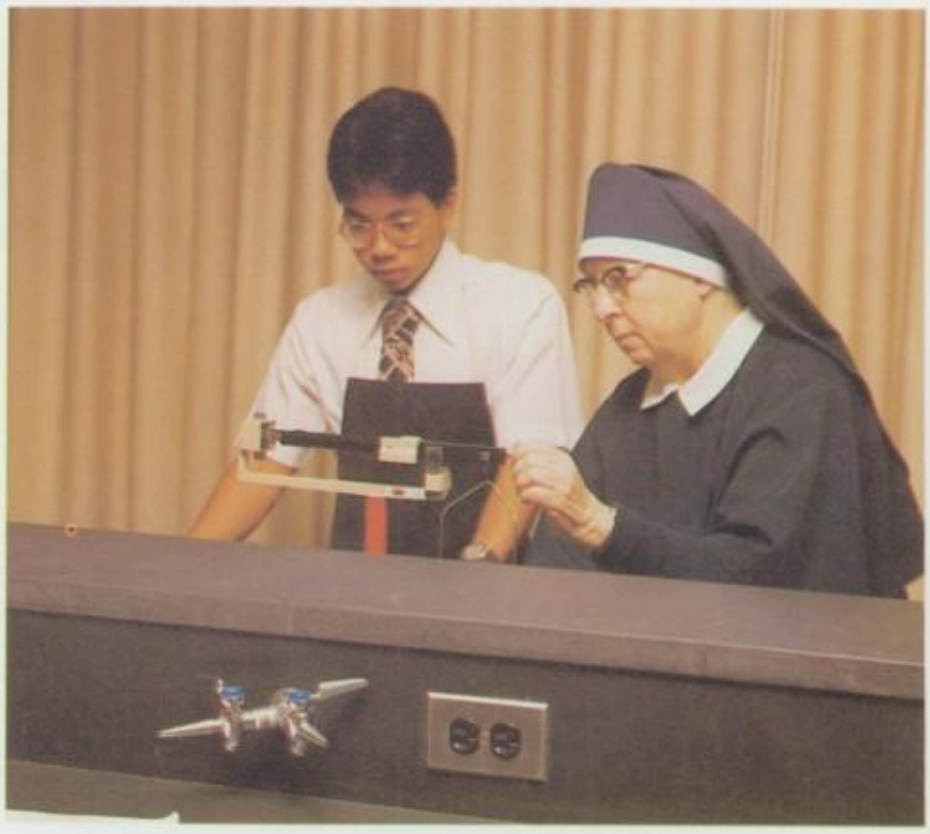
The History Department at the Prep does an excellent job of giving the facts, as well as the reasons and motives, of the events and people in history. And, although many a student studying for a History test may not believe it, a well-rounded knowledge of history is another important asset to have on our journey down the road. It enables us to draw on our knowledge of the past to understand what is happening in the world today.

In a more factual vein, the Science Department's teachers and their courses enable us to understand the natural processes in our world. Also, their classes are the springboard for the students who will become great doctors, researchers, and professors.

In the Religion classes, the students learn of the history of the Catholic Church and its doctrines, and receive a basis in morality, which they can develop into their own moral code. These classes may be the most important to us, ultimately, since they give us the strength and faith to face the problems that the "road" may present.

The Music and Art Department helps us on our journey down the "long and winding road" by giving us knowledge of the great artistic achievements of man, and, in those special few, the teachers of this department develop the skills which will make them skilled artists or musicians.

The Prep also has its excellent Language Department, which offers four years of Spanish, French, Italian, German, and Latin courses. The teachers of these courses also encourage the students to do outside work, and offer a fifth year to those students ahead in their studies. Also, the department runs the various cultural clubs, in which one can enjoy a Spanish, French, or Italian dinner or participate in other cultural activities.



Finally, the Prep also offers a variety of other clubs, not directly associated with the departments, such as the Future Lawyers Club, the Chess Club, the Political Science Club, and the Computer Club.

Thus, as far as intellectual development is concerned, the Prep prepares us greatly for the years that we will spend in college, and for the journey, as a whole, down the "long and winding road."

Physically, the Hall prepares us with four years of Physical Education, during which a student can enjoy sports like football or water polo. Furthermore, there are the numerous interscholastic athletic teams where the students can get in shape, learn to work as a team, and make close friends. Being in shape and learning to work as a team are two assets to have on our journey.

Socially, the Prep has the Booster Club and the Coffehouse Committee which organize dances, make sure that students go "en force" to the games and Prep rallies. Also, just being at the Prep helps one grow socially, since one has to constantly interact with students, teachers, and administrators. This ability, to interact socially, is very important on our journey since, as John Donne said: "No man is an island."

Since Seton Hall Prep is a Catholic school, there is an emphasis on the spiritual development of the student. To ensure growth in this area there are daily masses, regular confessions, and yearly retreats. There are also special masses throughout the year, like the Knights of Setonia. Most important to development in this area are the four years of Religion classes, and the dedicated priests and teachers who teach them. In these courses, everything from "The Bible" to "Making Moral Decisions" is covered. Growth in this area is important, since it will determine, to a large extent, what will be our ultimate resting down the "road"

Intellectually, physically, socially, and spiritually- these are four areas in which we are strengthened, and in which we grow, during the four years at the Prep, are as a result of which we will have a long and fruitful journey down the "road."

However, one cannot forget that besides preparing us for the rest of our journey, the Prep is part of our journey. Viewed in this, the Prep, again, is a very important part of our journey. We should view our years at the Prep, and the rest of our lives, in the light of what C.P. Cavafy, in his poem "Ithaka," has to say:

When you set out for Ithaka ask that your way be long,
full of adventure and full of instructions.
The Laestrygonians and the Cyclops,
angry Poseidon - do not fear them:
such as these you will never find as long as your thought is lofty, as long as a rare emotion touch your spirit and your body.
The Laestrygonians and the Cyclops, angry Poseidon - you will not meet them unless you carry them in your soul, unless your soul raise them up before you.
Ask that your way may be long.
At many a summer dawn to enter
- with what gratitude, what joy - ports seen for the first time;
to stop at Phoenician trading centers,
and to buy good merchandise,
mother of pearl and coral, amber and ebony,
and sensuous perfumes of every kind, sensuous perfumes as lavishly as you can;
to visit many Egyptian cities,
to gather stores of knowledge from the learned.
Have Ithaka always in your mind.
Your arrival there is what you are destined for.
But do not in the least hurry the Journey.
Better that it lasts for years,
so that when you reach the island you are old,
rich with all that you have gained on the way,
not expecting Ithaka to give you wealth.
Ithaka gave you the splendid journey.
Without her you would not have set out.
She hasn't anything else to give you.
And if you find her poor, Ithaka has not decieved you.
So wise have you become, of such experience, that already you will have understood what these Ithakas mean.

It is not what he has, or even what he does, which directly expresses the worth of a man, but what he is.
Henri Fredric Amiel

Seton Hall Prep is steeped in tradition, and one of the most staunch supporters of the traditions of Seton Hall is the Reverend William M. Giblin, priest, teacher, former headmaster, leader, administrator, friend. Fr. Giblin has been a priest for twenty-six years, Seton Hall's headmaster for twelve years, and a teacher and a friend for all of his adult life. His presence and his mark are an integral part of the Prep and thus the Class of 1985 dedicates this yearbook to him. Religion and education have always been the focal points of Fr. Giblin's life. He attended St. Michael's Grammar and High School in Newark. He pursued his college career at Seton Hall University where during his second year he decided to become a priest and entered the divinity school. He was ordained a priest in 1959, and in September of 1961 he began his life at the Prep as a teacher of English and Social Studies. The following year he became Activities Director of the Prep and his responsibilities continued to grow until 1968 when he became headmaster, a position which he held until his resignation in 1980.

Fr. Giblin brought about many changes during his administration as headmaster. The addition to Duffy Hall was proposed and completed under his guidance. He brought Sr. Regina Conboy, S.C. to the Prep faculty because he felt the need for women on the faculty to give the school more diverse perspectives. He also took much pride in the quality of his young faculty, particularly since many of them were Prep alumni. Fr. Giblin showed great interest in the scope of the curriculum. He played a large part in making religion a major academic subject, and he expanded and developed the Guidance Department to keep abreast of the changing college requirements and the diverse needs of the students. His eye was always on the future- the future of the Prep and the future of its students. He sought always to improve the quality of life at our school. Athletics were given an important place in the life of the students during Fr. Giblin's administration, but he also realized the need for interesting and worthwhile activities to enrich the extracurricular life of the students. The Activities Awards Dinner which he initiated remains a fine tribute to the talents shown by Prep students involved in the activities program. Fr. Giblin's resignation as headmaster in 1980 afforded him the opportunity to remain at the Prep and return to his original role as a teacher in the Religion Department. Here he continues each year to have daily contact with the students and to remain an active participant in life at the school.

The presence of this man is felt here at Seton Hall regardless of the capacity in which he is working. His students know him to be open and honest, a devoted priest, and a realistic friend. He has touched many lives over the years and has made life at the Prep better because he was here.

The Tower is dedicated to Reverend William M. Giblin not for what he has or for what he has done, but most especially for what he is.

SETON HALL
UNIVERSITY

On July 26, 1984, Seton Hall lost a very vital part. Mr. Laurence Chamales had suddenly died. The devastating news brought a very large cloud over the school. No one really understood how, all they knew is that it happened. However, the purpose of this piece is not to lament but to say farewell.

Mr. Chamales was born September 9, 1947 in Chicago, Illinois. He lived in Chicago until his sophomore year in high school. His family then moved to New Providence. He went to New Providence High School, where in 1965 he captained their state championship basketball team. Mr. Chamales continued his education at Seton Hall University. In 1969, he tri-captained their basketball team. He graduated in May of that year with a B.A. in History. Mr. Chamales came to the Prep in 1979, well qualified for the job. He had a masters in history and one in science education. In 1980, he revitalized the defunct Spectrum and added some of his own work to the student run publication. While here, he taught English and History. He was equally proficient in both.

Having Mr. Chamales as a teacher was a unique experience. His methods were difficult but excellent. His ultimate goal with his classes was to teach them to think. He wanted his students to look far below the topical. As a teacher, he gave different insights into varying subjects. Rare was the occasion when one left his class without thinking. He encouraged it. The opinions of other students were very important because they could suggest a new way of approaching a problem. He was highly concerned with giving his students a realistic, quality education.

Mr. Chamales was also a very special person in other ways. He was an artist. He wrote poetry, short stories, and various papers. He was praised and respected by those he came in contact with. Outside the school, he did many things for others. For the past fourteen years he had been working at a clinic for abused children. He had a great love for the youth. He felt that they were the future and everything should be done to help them. Larry Chamales tried to do anything possible to give them that help. He was the type of person who always had time for people. He was willing to do whatever he could for a friend. He would literally give the clothes off his back for another. There are not too many people in this world that sincere. His time spent here is greatly appreciated. At this time, we bid a fond farewell to Larry Chamales, teacher and friend.

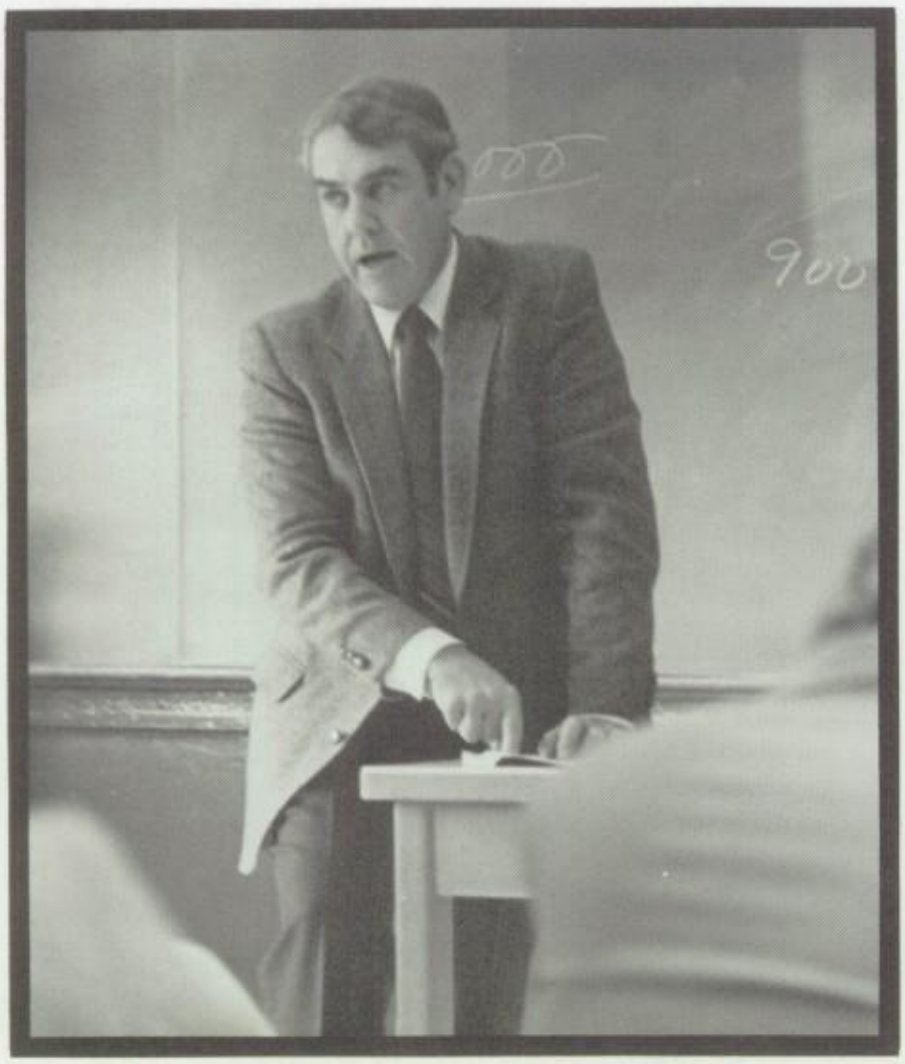
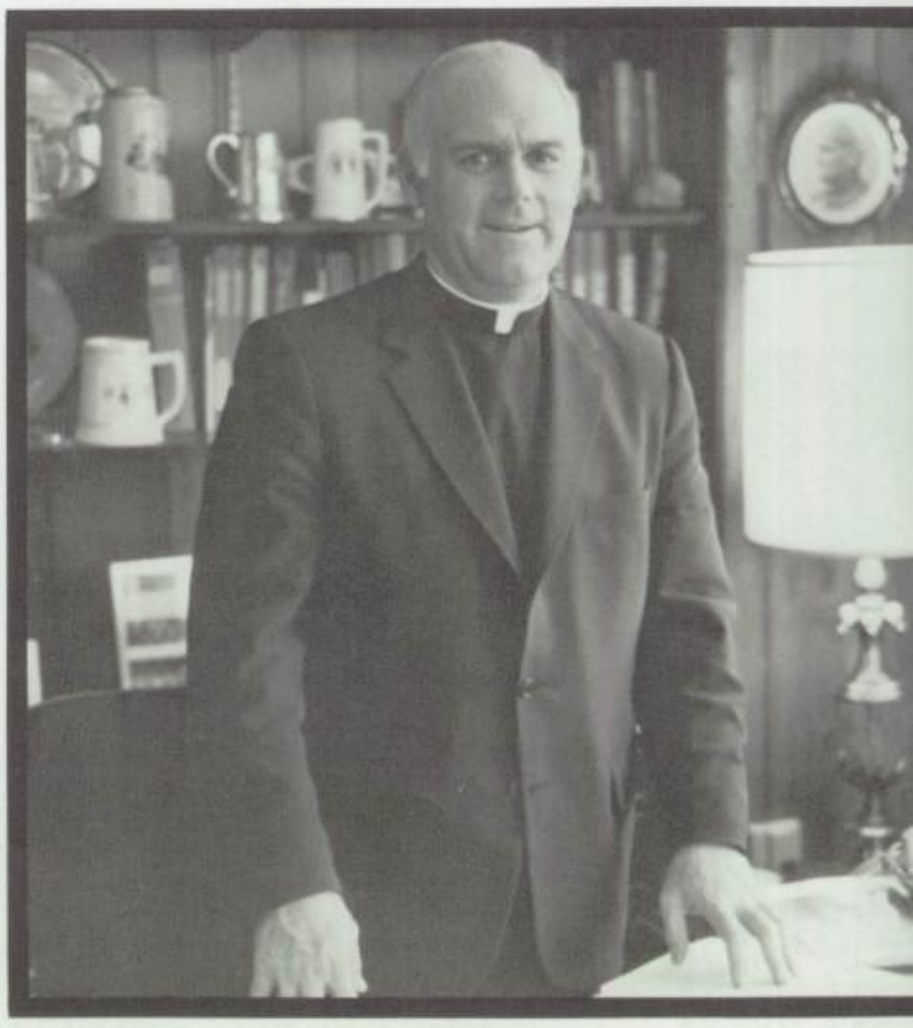
Dooon't worry, we can fix that.



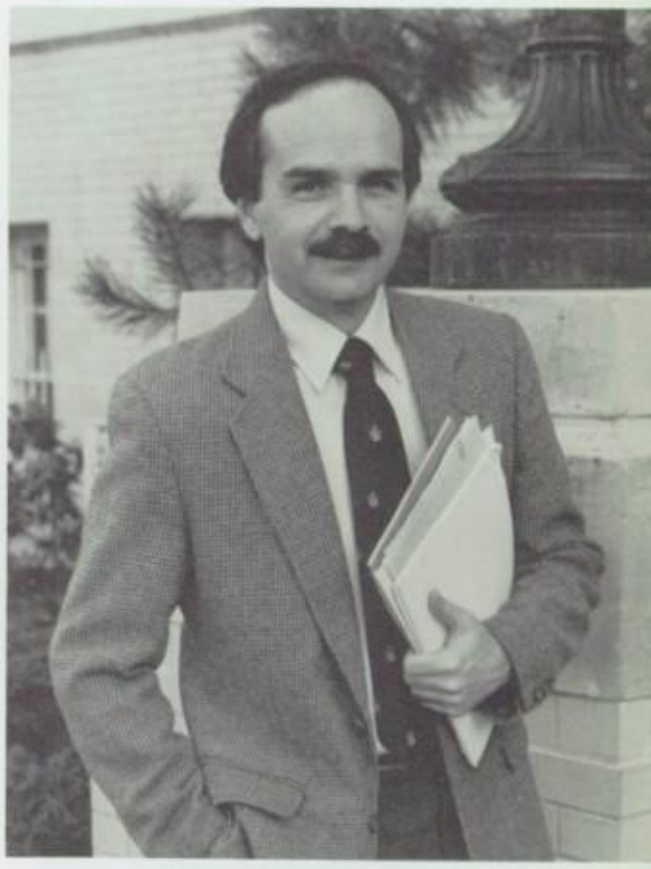
Uh, men . . .



A WEEK

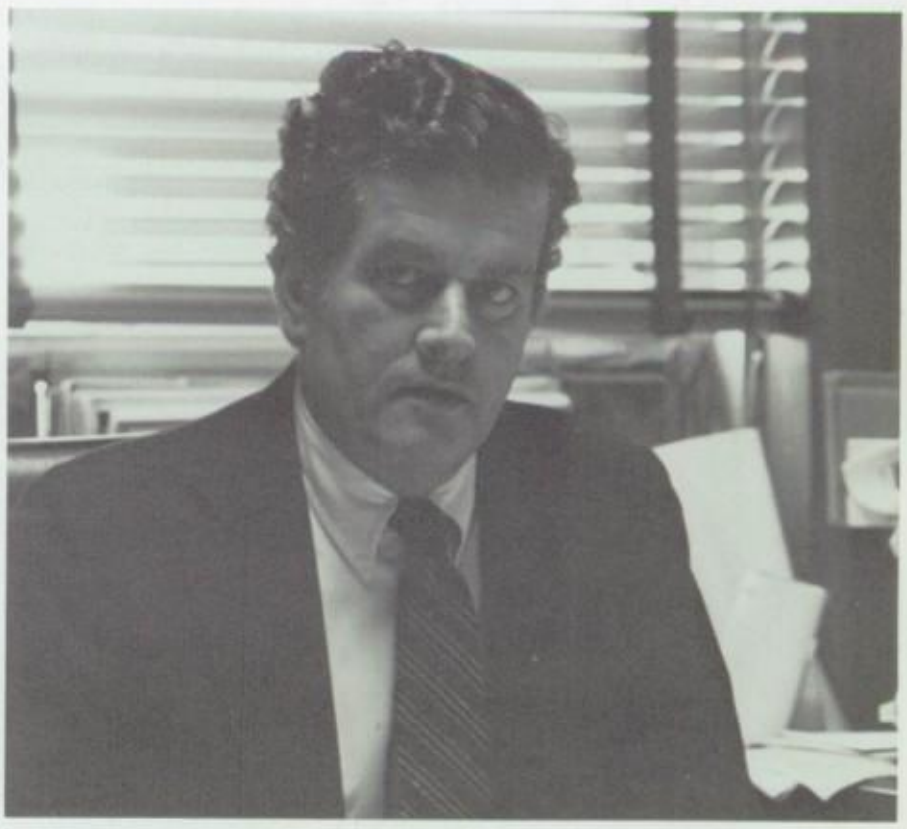
Yes, Mr. Kane is in today.

Listen guys, This is the first time I'm doing a yearbook, and I don't really know what I'm doing, BUT. . .

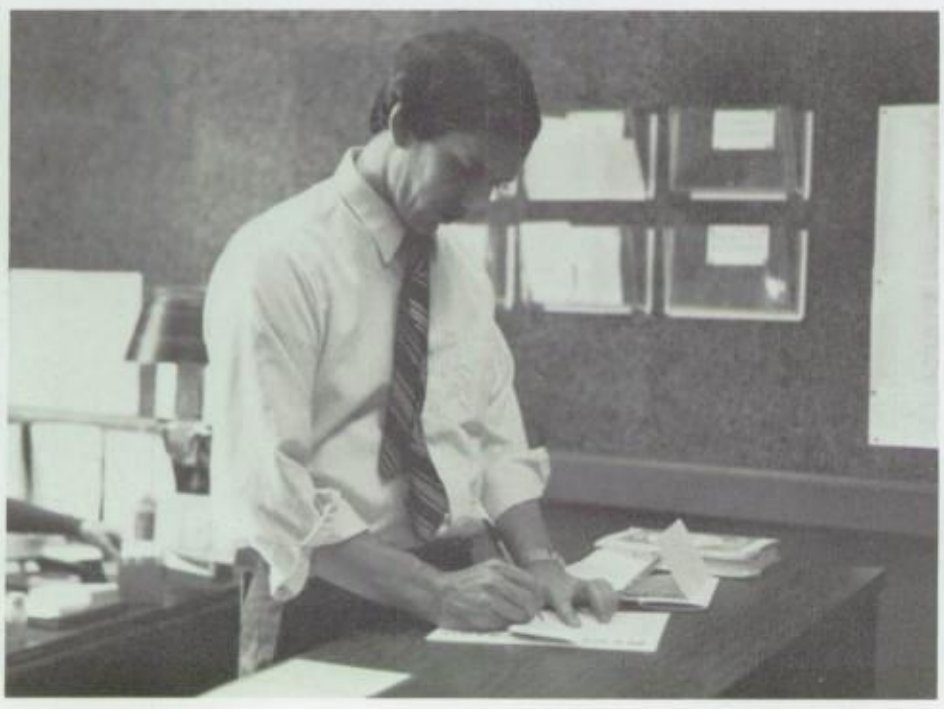


I'm sorry if your failing Chemistry, but it's too late to get out of it.

Holy uselessness Batman
I do serve a purpose here!



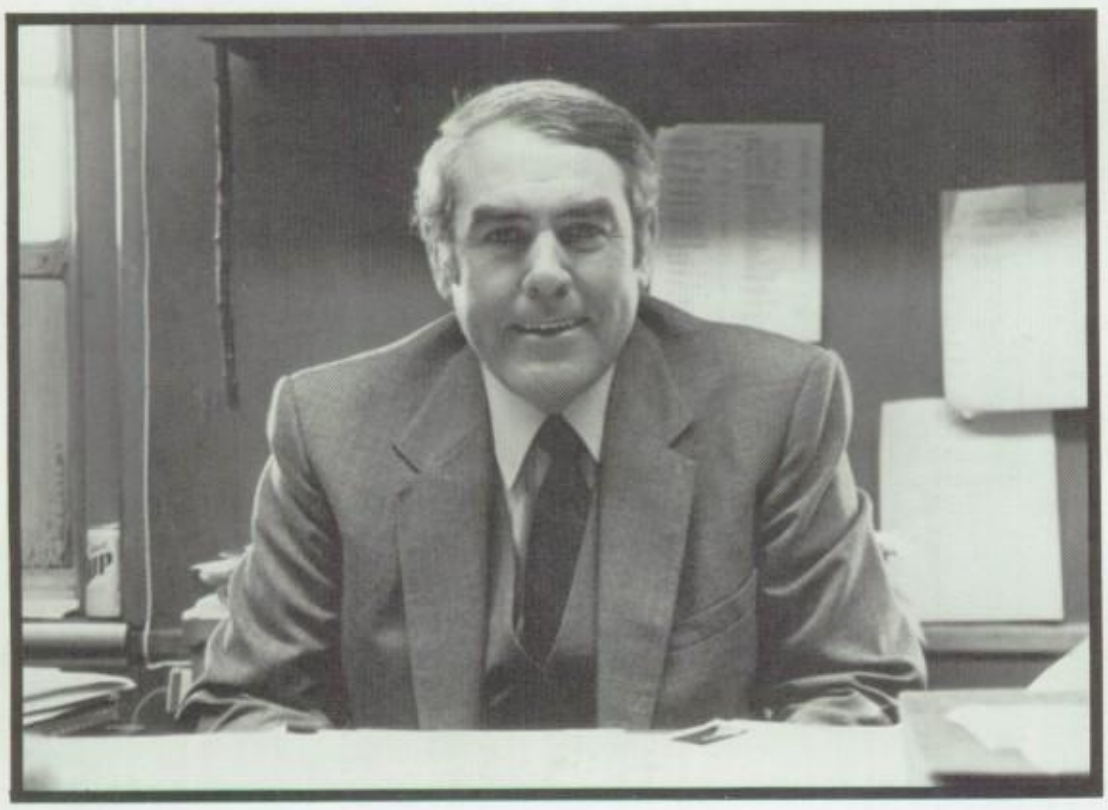
Aaah!! You guys are killing me!



Yes, well, I think you'll be spending a little time with us this week.

WE CAN WORK IT OUT

Mr. John Slevin, Mr. Francis Tuohy, Rev. Anthony Kulig, Msgr. Joseph Tuite



You didn't mean that, here's what you meant . . .

I'm not really mad that you missed practice yesterday, BUT I guess you'll have to make up those 500's now.

FOOTBALL

What a difference one year makes. After a disappointing 1-8 record last season, the Pirates of Seton Hall Prep finished with an 8-2 record. The Pirates played hard, consistent football throughout the season led by a defense unit that gave up an average of only seven points per game. The offense played well on a strong ground attack led by backfield consisting of juniors Greg Amsler and Gil Knight. Seton Hall reeled off eight straight wins (five on the road) before losing the final two games to Don Bosco Prep, in the first round of the state finals, and West Essex.

The season opened with a 13-7 upset of sixth ranked (the Star-Ledger top 20) Morristown. The Pony Pirates got things going early when Ken Fusco recovered a mishandled punt at the Morristown 15. Greg Amsler then ran in for a touchdown from the one on a fourth-down play and Pat Coon kicked the extra point.

The Prep added six more points in the second quater as safety Matt Lasher intercepted a pass at the Morristown 23. After Gil Knight was dropped for a three yard loss, Lasher hit Tight-end Dave Gagliano on a 26-yard touchdown strike.

Seton Hall started its five game road trip with a convincing 28-0 thrashing of Livingston. In the first quarter, the Pirates drove 58 yards in four plays. Lasher (7 carries-82 yards) sprinted 44 yards to the Livingston 14. Knight ran in for the touchdown from three yards out and Coon kicked his first of four extra-points.

Later in the same quarter, John Palardy recovered a loose ball at the Livingston 17 and Lasher hooked up with Gagliano, on the succeeding play, for the touchdown.

Lasher capped off a 55-yard scoring drive in six plays with a one yard run in the second quarter. The Hall closed out the scoring in the third period on a 35-yard touchdown run by Amsler.

The defense played exceptionally well as they plugged up the holes in the line and intercepted five passes. On the other side of the line, the offensive line (C-Mike Corrigan, G-Ken and Vin Fusco, T-Roman Matusz and Donnell Moody) also played very well opening up large holes for Amsler and Knight.

In the third week of play, Seton Hall defeated Roxbury on two touchdown runs by Knight. The first came on the Hall's first offensive play as he sped 69 yards and Coon kicked the first of four placements. Amsler (8-carries-108 yards) scored on a 63-yard run to cap an 80-yard drive in the second period.

In the third quarter, Knight (12 carries-120 yards) scored his second TD from eight yards out to finish a 35-yard drive that was set up by Moody's fumble recovery. Joe Cocuzza closed out the scoring for the Prep on a seven yard run to end a he Pony Pirates pushed its record to 4-0 by beating West Milford 21-14. eton moved to a 7-0 lead by moving the ball 80 yards in seven plays as msler ran it in from the two. The Prep went ahead again in the second uarter when Knight scored on a seven-yard run. Amsler scored the decisive ouchdown with 10:11 left in the game on a five-yard run. Cocuzza also had strong game with 112 yards rushing.

he Prep moved on to Parsippany to defeat the Redskins 14-7. Seton Hall cored its two touchdowns on runs of 25 and 51 yards by Amsler the first vo periods. Parsippany scored on the opening kickoff of the second half, but he defense stood tall and held the Redskins scoreless the rest of the way to reserve the Pirates' fifth straight victory.

eton Hall traveled to Morris Knolls to face their toughest competition yet. he Pirates lived up to the task and defeated Morris Knolls 24-14. The efense set up two of the Prep's three touchdowns with Lasher collecting hree interceptions. Knight opened the scoring for the Prep with a one yard n that ended a four play, 17-yard drive, set up by Ed Stewart's fumble ecovery.

night (24 carries-107 yards) brought Seton from behind with a one-yard ouchdown run that capped a 15-play, 68-yard drive and Coon's extra-point ut the Pirates ahead 17-14.

asher's third interception and his 17-yard return started the Prep's final rive. Amsler scored from the three midway through the fourth quarter; the ore ended a four-play, 23-yard advance.

eton Hall returned home to crush cross-town rival, Columbia, 35-6 on a rong running attack. Amsler (15 carries-211 yards) and Knight (8 carries-26 yards) each scored twice. Jay dowdy scored the Prep's first touchdown he grabbed a loose ball and took it in the endzone after Amsler fumbled the two on a 48-yard dash. The defense, sparked by two interceptions by lark Duffy that started scoring drives of 61 and 47 yards, held Columbia to st one touchdown. The Pirates gained a season high 408 yards on the round and clinched a playoff spot.

Orange. An interception by Gil Knight with 30 seconds remaining in the game in the endzone assured the victory.

The Prep, led by Amsler's 29 carries, ran for a total of 185 yards. Amsler scored on a one yard run in the second quarter and gave the hall a 13-6 advance. Earlier in the quarter, Dowdy caught a 10-yard pass for the first score. Coon's point-after put the Pirates ahead 7-6.

The defense played inspired football and forced four turnovers. Lasher intercepted two passes and Moody recovered a fumble.

In the opening round of the North Jersey Parochial A football playoffs, Seton Hall was upset by eventual champion Don Bosco Prep of Ramsey 10-7 and the loss ended the dream of an undefeated, championship season. The hall's offense just could not maintain a consistent effort throughout the game and it was Don Bosco who scored first on a 21-yard field goal on the opening series.

The Pirates' only score of the game came in the second quarter when a punt by Don Bosco from its own six-yard line went just seven yards as the ball hit a gust of wind. The Prep recovered the ball at the 13. After two passes by Lasher failed to reach the endzone, he threw a screen pass to halfback Knight on the left side and he scrambled into the endzone.

But the one touchdown was not enough. Don Bosco scored in the thrid quarter on 13-yard touchdown pass despite the close guarding of Knight.

The offense could not get going in the second half. In fact, they were held to one first down and 13 yards offense in the final half. The Pony Pirates ended the game with 91 yards rushing and 23 yards passing. It was a tough loss.

Seton Hall hosted West Essex for the final game on Thanksgiving Day. The defense played very well while giving up only three points. However, the offense could not manage to put up any points on the board. The Hall could not move the ball and closed out the season being shutout 3-0.

Enperience is a major key to success in anything and this was no exception for the soccer team. Although this year's team was composed of five seniors, twelve juniors and four sophomores, the spunky team did not let their lack of experience hold them back. They ended up with a respectable 6-12-4 record.

The team was led by senior co-captains Chris Duggan and Stephen Deehan. Juniors Roman Ponos, Jim Ruane, and Ted McLaughlin along with sophomores Peter and Thomas McConville helped the team and also gained experience and respectability for future years.

Although the young Pirate squad wasn't expected to be a threat to anyone's perfect season, however they did provide a scare to many perrenial powerhouses. Against Columbia, Morris Knolls, Morristown, and East Orange, the toughest of the Iron Hills Conference teams, the Pirates fared well despite losing to Morris Knolls and Columbia. Against East Orange the team played very well and won, and against Morristown the team came up with ties both times they played.

In the post-season tournaments, the young team showed its determination. In the Essex County Tournament, they won their openting round game against a highly touted Newark Academy team.

the state tournament, the Pirates ced the top seeded Bergen Catholic rusaders. The Pirates got out on top in the third period with a goal by McLaughlin. However, the Crusaders possessed too much firepower and won 3-1. Although the team lost, they showed true determination and gave other teams an idea of what is in store for them in the future.

Because of their desire, a few of the team's players have been named to all-state teams. Toman Ponos, Chris Duggan, and Jim Ruane were named to All-Essex County teams and Ted McLaughlin and the other three were named to the All-Oranges Team.

X-COUNTRY

The 1984 Cross Country Team finished its season with a dual meet record of 4-4 and many runners placed in weekend meets held by the New Jersey Catholic Track Conference.

This year's team, which lost four key runners to graduation, was expected to be in a rebuilding stage, but the team's performance suprised many people who did not expect such a strong showing in their conference.

The Harriers, led by junior captains Eugene Patton and Tom Cunningham, began its season with an impressive victory over Livingston. The team also made an outstanding showing at the Stewart Memorial meet held at Warinaco Park in Elizabeth. The Varsity placed 17th as a team; and, individually, Vernon Richards led the Prep with a 61st place finish in a field of 240 with a time of 18:51, followed by Larry Ulhman, Dave Banks, Danny Castan, Dave Maziak, John Brumlik, and Joe Ippolito. Another impressive showing came from junior Chris DeGrezia. Chris ran J.V. placing 47th in 19:18. The Hall followed its performance at Elizabeth with a meet against Morristown in which the Prep lost 39-36. The team also went on to convincingly defeat East Orange and, thereby, the team raised its status in the Iron Hills Conference.

As the season wore on tragedy struck when both Patton and Cunningham went down with major leg injuries that put them out for the remainder of the season. As a result, the Harriers were put under the leadership of acting captains Vernon Richards and Larry Uhlman. Despite the adversity, the team continued its winning ways and produced a respectable record in intraconference meets that has helped establish a squad that will be a force to be reckoned with in future years.

Coaches Mike Mielko (10th season) and Vin Campi (7th season) both feel that the injuries to key runners have hampered the team's progress this year, but they also feel that with more intense training over the summer the team can easily improve theis year's performance.

UPPER RIGHT: Manny Rodriguez
LOWER RIGHT: Lou Sena

Although the team as a whole ended up with an average record, many individual runners won high honors by performing outstandingly in major meets throughout the season. Junior Vernon Richards came on strong after two uncertain seasons, and contributed greatly to the team's progress. Sophmore Larry Uhlman, a dedicated athlete since his freshman year, finished this year's campaign by winning the NJCTC sophmore championship race. However, the highest honor given to these two runners this year came at the end of the season when both were named to the All-Orange Cross Country Team, an honor bestowed upon the top runners in all of the Oranges. Also, Eugene Patton and Chris DeGrezia were named to the second squad on the All-Oranges Cross Country Team which is also a great accomplishment.

These runners, along with other noteworthy freshmen such as John Meade and Julman Tolentino, promise an upcoming season of success.

BASKETBALL

The Prep basketball team, coached by Bob Farrel and Pete Butler, entered the 1984-85 season with great expectations since five of the returning players, Tom Cook, Terry Lally, Frantz Volcy, Floyd McRae, and Matt Lasher had starting experience. However, the hoopsters had to first overcome a demanding schedule against its tough Iron Hills and independent opponents. Therefore, the team's 23-2 record for this campaign, one of the best in Seton Hall history, was very rewarding. The Prepsters were so highly regarded that they maintained the top spot in the state rankings for 6 weeks. Besides being #1 in New Jersey, the team was rated highly in Metropolitan and East Coast polls. The squad won the Iron Hills Conference Championship with a 15-0 mark within the league.

Coach Farrel had to deal with this rigorous schedule with a young squad consisting of only five seniors: co-coptains Terry Lally and Derrick "Doc" Matthews, Floyd McRae, John Bennet, and Brian Bambrick. The coaches are proud of these seniors who have led the youthful squad through an outstanding season. The underclassmen led by Tom Cook and Frantz Volcy are very talented and made major contribuitions to the team. Mark Madden, Mark Duffy, Jose Rebimbus, Tom McGurren, Bill Hazleton, Tom Whitaker, Drew Solomon, and Jeff O'Mailley were the newcomers who made an important impact this season. Cook's offense, Volcy's shot-blocking and rebounding, and Madden's versatility played decisive roles in the successful season.

The team opened its winning streak with a big victory over a tough East Orange squad. The Pirates defeated the Panthers 63 to 54. Another big victory was a win over highly regarded St. Peter's of Staten Island. The Pirates down by 2 at the end of the third period, stormed back to shock St. Peter's and its 7 foot center by 8 points. Two victories in the S.H.P. Christmas Tournament capped the 1984 portion with a 6-0 record. By trouncing 13th ranked Roselle by a score of 63-39, the squad won the Christmas Tournament Championship. Terry Lally was the M.V.P. of the tournament.

The team's quest for an Essex County Championship included victories over Glen Ridge, East Orange, and Clifford Scott. The Scotties, playing a tough pressure defense, ly lost to the Pirates by four points. The drive for the ld ended in the E.C.T. finals as a surprising Montclair am shocked the Pony Pirates, 50-48. The Prepsters made emotional comeback but come up short.

fter defeating Marist, 59-46, the season came to a jarring lt as Bergen Catholic dashed the team's State hampionship hopes. Even though the Hall outscored its ponent from the field, Bergen was victorious because it nnected on 16 more free throws than the Prepsters did.

e 23-2 season was extremely successful. Tom Cook ended e year with averages of 15 points and 12 rebounds. antz Volcy was dominating during the season. Volcy ded the year with averages of 16 points, 13 rebounds, d an amazing 7.5 blocked shots per game. The Prepsters, l by Division 1 prospects Volcy and Cook, will once ain be a dominant force in New Jersey next year. ngratulations for a great year and good luck in the ture, Pirates!

HOCKEY

For the 1984-85 Prep Ice Hockey team it was a season of highs and lows. Ranked 4th in the pre-season Star-Ledger Top 10, the team never exceeded the number 2 ranking. They did win the National Conference of the A Division with a 10-2 record. Overall, the team finished the season with a 16-7 slate.

After a slow 1-2 start, the icemen ran off an 8-1 streak to improve thier record to 9-3. The only loss was a costly one to Morristown in the Northern New Jersey Invitational Tournament. Included in that string of 9 games were big wins over Montclair, in which goaler Steve Smith came up with an amazing 50-save performance, Don Bosco, and Montclair again in the Meadowslands Arena. The Ice Pirates also beat C.B.A. on their own ice by a score of 9-5. In that game, All-State right wing Dan Prachar set a school record when he scored 6 times. Playing well for Seton Hall were defensive standouts Jim Bonner, Greg MacGillis, and John Murphy. Providing the offensive power were freshman Andy McLaughlin and Ted Bonner, Sophomores Kevin Kamenski and George Schneider, and Juniors Frank DiMarco & Ted McLaughlin. Adding their aggressive style of play were Gary Ryon and Dave Lynch.

A loss to St. Joe's didn't seem to take the spirit out of the team's play as they came back a few days later to avenge the loss and hand St. Joe's a 6-3 setback. After a lackluster loss to Dwight-Englewood, the Pirates won their last four games of the regular season, including an emotional 4-3 victory over Brick down at the Ice Palace, and a season-closing blanking of St. Peter's, 2-0.

Post-season play started out well for the Prep as they defeated Brick Memorial in the first round of the Gordon Cup. This was short-lived however, as they fell in the Championship game to Brick the next night, 6-3. The season came to an ubrupt end when, after a preliminary round bye, the Pirates were shocked by Whippany Park in the first round of the state playoffs, 3-2. Seniors Jeff Lynch & Mario Macaluso, Juniors Brian Bonner and Rich Secrit, as well as goalies Dan McAdams and Mike Sidlowski all made contributions. With only five players graduating, the team should have plenty of experience for next season.

INDOOR-TRACK

At the outset of the 1984-85 indoor track season, Coach Mielko laid down a new set of rules and regulations. He also wanted his team to write down their goals for the upcoming season. One goal that stood out the most, was that the team wanted the best mile relay team in the state.

The team began its season with a couple of warm-up meets in the bubble, where they proved their superiority in Essex County. The Prep's first real competition came when they attended the NJCTC Passarelli Relays. In the meet, the Hall set one record and nearly established another. The mile relay team of Manny Rodriguez, Vernon Richards, Reggie Smith, and Jameel Spenser set a record of 3:24.9. The previous record was set by a team that Coach Mike Mielko anchored himself in 1968 with a time of 3:25.4. The other record which was almost broken was in the 800 meter relay. Don Carter replaced Richards in the quartet as they ran in a time of 1:33.8. This impressive victory, in the mile relay, placed Seton Hall at the top of the qualifiers for the Millrose Games at Madison Square Garden.

The Relay's toughest competition was about to begin. Last year at the Millrose trials the Prep did not qualify, losing to Edgewood and Plainfield. However, this year the same competition was back, and the team of Rodriguez, Richards, Smith, and Spenser proved they were a force to be reckoned with by winning the trials, in freezing weather, with a time of 3:28.0.

When the 25th of January came around, the mile relay was off to New York City to compete against the best teams in the Metropolitan Area. As the night came to a close, the relay team had another victory under its belt. The team ran in a time of 3:22.75, breaking a record of 3:22.8 set in 1966.

From the sound of the gun until the finish, the Prep held the lead as Reggie Smith opened in 51.0. Manny Rodriguez ran the second leg in 51.5, Vernon Richards ran the third leg 51.2, and Jameel Spencer, or "Skeets" as he likes to be called, anchored in 49.1. The goal of becoming number one in the state was now fulfilled with this awesome showing at Madison Square Garden. But to the surprise of the relay team, they found themselves ranked number one in the nation by Track & Field News" (Feb. edition).

The final real challenge for the mile relay squad came at the Vitalis Olympic Invitational at the Meadowlands, where the competition promised to be more difficult. In fact, right from the start the team was in trouble. Reggie Smith, running the first leg, handed the baton to Vernon Richards in third place. Manny Rodriguez also handed off to Jameel Spencer in third place. Spencer immediately went after the competition and passed the leaders on the inside lane clocking at 48.4 and pulled the team to a first place finish. The team ran a time of 3:22.33.

Although the track team came up short in the States and Conference, they had a very good showing in the County Championships. The lack of men in distance and field events proved harmful. In the States, Jameel Spencer won the 400 meters in 50.5 and Reggie Smith won the 60-yard dash in 6.5 seconds. In the N.J.C.T.C., Reggie Smith won the 60-yd dash again with a time of 6.6 sec. in addition to setting a record in the 300 with a time of 32.0. Reggie also won the long jump and came in third in the triple jump. In the 600-yard dash, Spencer and Rodriguez took secon and third respectively. Richards placed fourth in the 1,000-yard run, and sophomore Don Carter came in fourth in the 300-yard dash with a time of 34.0.

Other individuals who cotributed to this year's success were: Marquis Harris in the jumps, Dwight Armstead in the sprints, and sophmores Dewey Sanders, Nyron McLeish, Charlie Jaworski, and Dave Maciak. With the success of the underclassmen, future years should prove to be successful for the indoor track team.

WRESTLING

In late November nobody knew what to expect of the 1984-85 Seton Hall Prep wrestling team in a season dedicated to a late, great wrestler, Dan O'Callahan. By late February the team had proven that they had completely recovered from the troubled season of last year. After dropping the opening match with a somewhat weakened line up, the Priates traveled to West Milford to wrestle two matches. They returned with victories over both West Milford and Wayne Hills.

Soon after, the Pirates faced Livingston and paid back the Lancers for having beaten the Pirates last year. The Pirates set the pace early and kept the pressure on, winning at the first five weight classes plus 141, 148 and 188 in route to a 35 to 15 victory. The next victims in the Pirates' path were the Gales of Roxbury. Key victories at 108, 115, 122, and 148 gave the Pirates a large enough lead to hang on through the upper weights. Following the Gales were the Hornets of Passaic Valley. Once again the upper weights merely had to hang on after victories in the lower weights had granted the Pirates the lead. Two days later a somewhat different team traveled to Jersey City to face St. Peters. Sophomores, Beuchel and Munn and Junior, Eric Marchesi made their varsity debut as the Pirates crushed St. Peters 56 to 10.

The Pirates then ran into rough waters. The Redskins of Parsippany turned out to be a much more formidable opponent than expected as the Pirates "eeked out" the victory 32 to 29. The toughest task of the year found and left the Pirates on a low note. The State ranked Golden Eagles of Morris Knolls entered Walsh Gym still unbeaten. They left the same way, handing Seton Hall their second loss of the season. The only wrestlers to shine were Steve Deehan, Gene Grieco, and John Hensler whose victories accompanied by a tie of Chris Degrazia left the score 54 to 15. The Pirates losing streak was expected to end at 1, but a quiet enemy awaited the "grapplers". The Bees of St. Benedicts, considered to be an underdog, supprised the Pirates by handing them their second loss in a row and their third loss of the season.

The Pirates were resultantly considered the underdog when facing cross-town rival, the Columbia Cougars. The team was not to be denied. Great performances from Deehan, Grieco, Cocuzza and Pearson left the teams in a dead heat after the 148 lb. bout. At 158 lbs., Brent Yoemanns executed two last minute takedowns to post a tough win. After a tie by Bill Fearon the 170 lb. wrestler, the Pirates blew it open posting pins at 188 lbs. and Hwt. by John Hensler and Tom Mulligan.

The next best highlight for the Pirates came at the expense of the West Essex Knights. After falling behind in the early weights, the middle and upper weights came roaring back. A win by default by Jim Pearson at 135 and pins by Cocuzza, Yoemanns and Hensler iced the bout for Seton Hall.

Once again the Pirates found themselves as the underdogs when they traveled to Montvale to face a tough team from St. Josephs for the first round of the State Tournament. An exceptional performance by Jim Pearson highlighted the upset victory of the Pirates. This however was as far as the "grapplers" would advance in this tournament.

In the District Championship the three captains, Steve Deehan, Joe Cocuzza and Jeff Alholm were joined by Junior Chris Degrazia in the finals and all were champions. All four advanced to the Regional tournament along with third place finishers, Gene Grieco and Brent Yoemanns. There, both Degrazia and Cocuzza were champions and advanced to the State tournament in Princeton.

Returning to next year's team will be Sophomore Rich Riva, Fred Beuchel, Mike O'Neill and Juniors, Brent Yoemanns and Larry Munn. Next year's team promises to be just as exciting as this year's. However, it may be tough to improve on the 15-4 record of this year

SWIMMING

This year's Prep "Mermen" had a difficult challenge ahead of them at the start of the 1984-85 season- being defending Iron Hills Conference Champions, Essex County Champions, along with quite a respectable fourth place finish in the state. As the season progressed they proved to be a most worthy team and a quite formidable opponent to any team in the state.

Led by senior Co-Captains Bob Bunda and Tim DiMarco, along with the very strong backups of Dan Maloney, Paul Kowalski, Nick D'Andrea, Brian Arnold, and Pete Farrell, this year's senior squad came up with many clutch performances that helped carry the team to victory. The Mermen faired well in dual meet competition. They finished with a 5-4 record and ended the season on a winning note by giving Randolph its only loss in the Iron Hills Conference.

In the Counties this year, the team finished third behind Livingston and Montclair. Once again the team came up with many fine swimming performances that included many personal best times. At the meet, the Prep came away with four County Champs: Tim DiMarco in the 200 IM and 400 Free Relay, Bob Bunda in the 200 and 800 Free and 400 Free Relay, and Dan Maloney and Rob MacFarlane in the 400 Free Relay.

Exceptional performances were also turned in by Kevin Lally in the IM, Andy Mitzak in the IM and 100 Fly, Eric Carl in the 800 Free and 100 Fly P.B., and Rob MacFarlane in the 100 Back. The other swimmers who also contibuted to the success were Eddy Fanning, Mike Davis, Mike Prout, and Bill Kennedy.

In the IHC, the Mermen made a fine showing with the 400 Free Relay again coming out on top while The Prep, as a team, finished a respectable fourth.

The success experienced by this year's team was a group effort. It came about not because of just a few people but because of all the members contibuting. There were many people on this year's Swim Team, but without the help of Frosh Philip Quinlin, Schwarz, Joe Pereira, and senior Tom Egan, this year's team might not have been the success that it was.

Throughtout the long fall and winter sports seasons, support of the athletic teams seems to decline during the middle portions. However, there is always support coming from a group of girls who can be seen on the field, court, or mats. In the rain, snow, late hours, or cold weather, our girls are there cheering for the Prep with as much or more enthusiasm than the student body. Even when fans sometimes become unresponsive, they continue to cheer and show spirit despite the lack of support.

There are many hours of tedious practice behind the little blue skirts and pom-poms. There are frustrations and elations, much like athletics. Among the schools represented by the girls are Marylawn, Mount Saint Dominics, Lacordaire, Saint Elizabeth's Academy, and Essex Catholic.

During the football season, fans were led by a spirited squad of twelve girls cheering the football team to victory. The football cheerleaders consisted of: seniors: Peggy Denvir (Co-captain), Joan Kelly (Co-captain), Toni Torsiello; juniors: Geralynn Tancredi, Michelle Yatsonsky, Stacy Socha, Claudia Pucci, Megan Parry, Maria Ditta; sophmores: Courntey McCrane, Patty Brennan, and Elizabeth Buinno. The squad was able to attend the away, as well as the home, games with the strong support of Mr. Walsh. In addition, for the second year in a row, the girls were coached by Nina Salnero who gave the squad guidance and leadership from her past cheerleading experience.

For the second time in as many years, the basketball and wrestling cheerleaders were combined. While the fan support grew thin for these teams in games or matches that took place during the week or on Sunday afternoons, these girls attended the events to spark the teams to victory.

The winter squad was led by junior captains Geralynn Tancredi, Stacy Socha, and Claudia Pucci. The remainder of the squad included: Michelle Yatsonsky, Megan Parry, Mary Butler; sophmores: Jennifer Noble, Patty Brennan, Elizabeth Buinno; freshman: Meg Butler, Debbie Bosworth, Margaret McConville, and Michelle Fernard.

Because the results have been gratifying, the many long hours of practice and sore throats paid off. This dedication exhibited by the cheerleaders is a true sign of their love for the Prep. The success of the tems was made all the more significant because of the spirit embodied in the cheers which led to a sense of victory in the spectators and athletes.

We here at the Tower would like to say to the cheerleaders, as well as the many parents, students, and faculty who took time to come and support our athletic teams, thank you.

ACTIVITIES! WHAT GOES ON! ACTIVITIES! WHAT GOES ON! ACTIVITIES!

WITH A LITTLE HELP FROM MY FRIENDS

September; 1984- the pirate football team scored an opening day victory. Their win was made possible, in part, by a new team member, the Seton Hall Prep Fraternity. Invented and brought to life by Greg Castano and Terry Lally, this new Prep activity brought some new spirit to some old favorites.

The Frat made its debut on opening day in the parking lot in front of Walsh Auditorium with a tailgate party. Students met before the game and enjoyed hot dogs, hamburgers, soda and music. Students could either bring their own or contribute to a fund that allowed them unlimited food and drink. These tailgate parties were a ritual for all home games. They helped to give the Frat the one thing that it is all about- team spirit.

Once inside the stands, the Frat began its main purpose- loudness. Cheers of "You, You, You" or "Here we go Pirates" could be heard throughout the entire game. Cheering participation was mandatory.

Violation of this was punishable by . . . . . well, the Frat does have some secrets.

Membership into the Fraternity was on a self-initiated basis. When a student felt that he wanted to contribute to the fun and spirit of the Frat, he was in. Membership was not limited in any way; freshman to seniors were welcome. Even teachers participated.

The Frats doings also spilled over to soccer, basketball, wrestling, and hockey games.

Another thing that the Fraternity did was to provide transportation to the away games for those who didn't have any. This helped to increase the attendance at most of the away games.

Overall, the Seton Hall Prep Fraternity helped to boost school's spirit and participation. Hopefully, its popularity, as well as its productivity, will enable it to carry on and become a lasting Prep organization.

PIRATE POWER

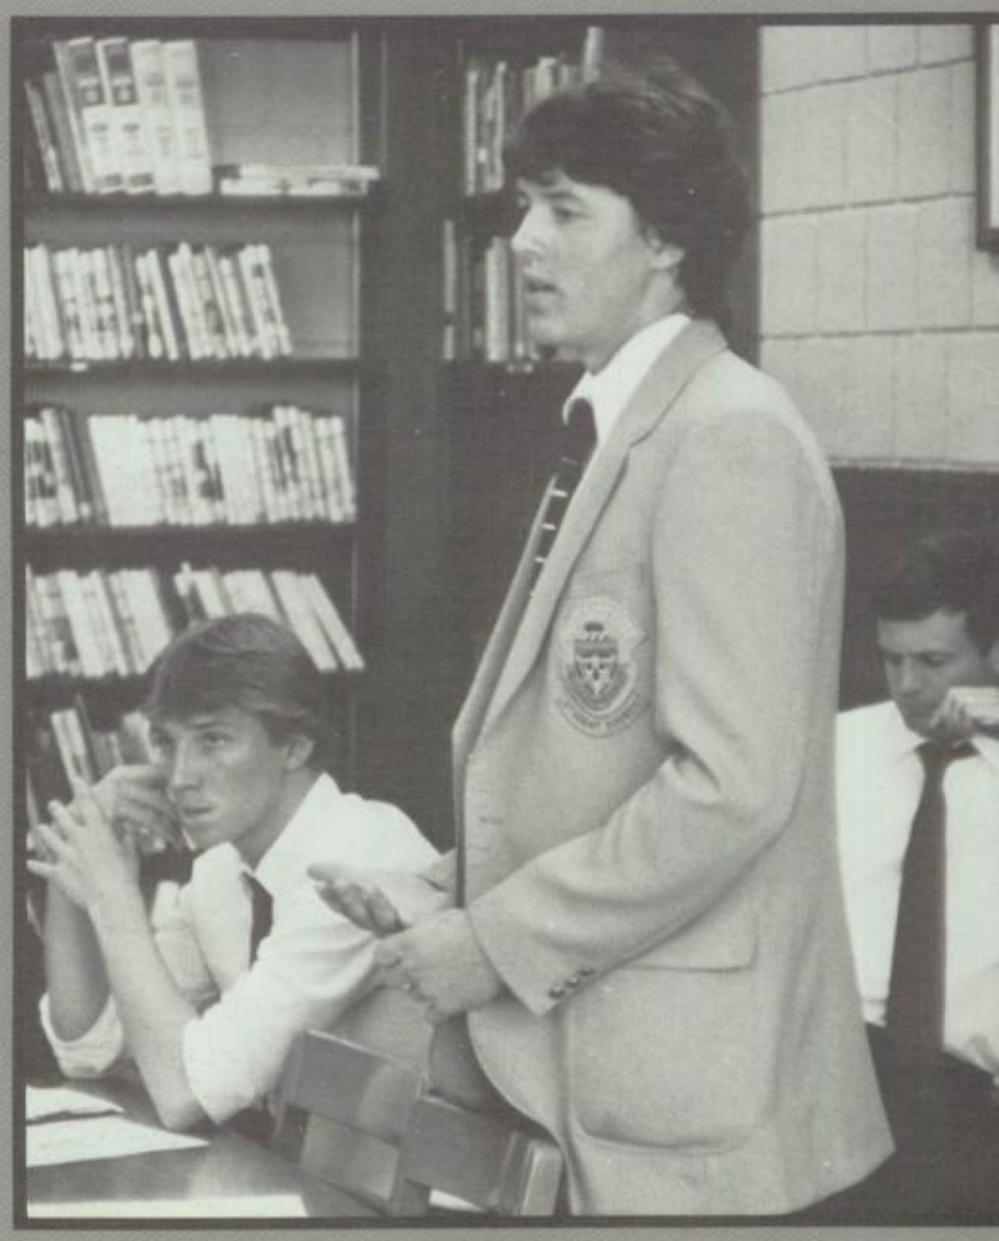
Following tradition, the Student Council officers were elected at the end of last year. An extremely large field of nominees vied for only three positions. The three candidates who emerged victorious were Terry Lally, a landslide winner in the battle for the Presidency; Steve Deehan as Vice-President and Jeff Ahlholm in the Secretary/Treasurer post. This leadership trio enjoyed a very successful term in office.

The three Student Council officers juggled a wide variety of responsibilities. Acting as the official school representatives, getting the student body involved, and using our gifts to benefit the Prep and its surrounding community, were the points most emphasized by Terry Lally's administration. For example, three Tag Days were held which amassed over $3,000. for worthy causes such as Brad Dalbec, the Danny O'Callaghan Scholarship Fund, and Newark fire victims.

School spirit was much improved over last year as a result of increased student body participation. New ideas of this administration such as tailgate parties before games, a half-court shot contest, and a senior intramural basketball league were some of the key reasons for school spirit. Also, dances and exchange days with local Catholic schools brightened the days and social life of the Prep students.



This year's Student Council holds the distinction as being the last leaders of the Prep while it was located in South Orange. The industrious combination of Lally, Deehan and Ahlholm made a great impact on the school and steered it on its course into the future.

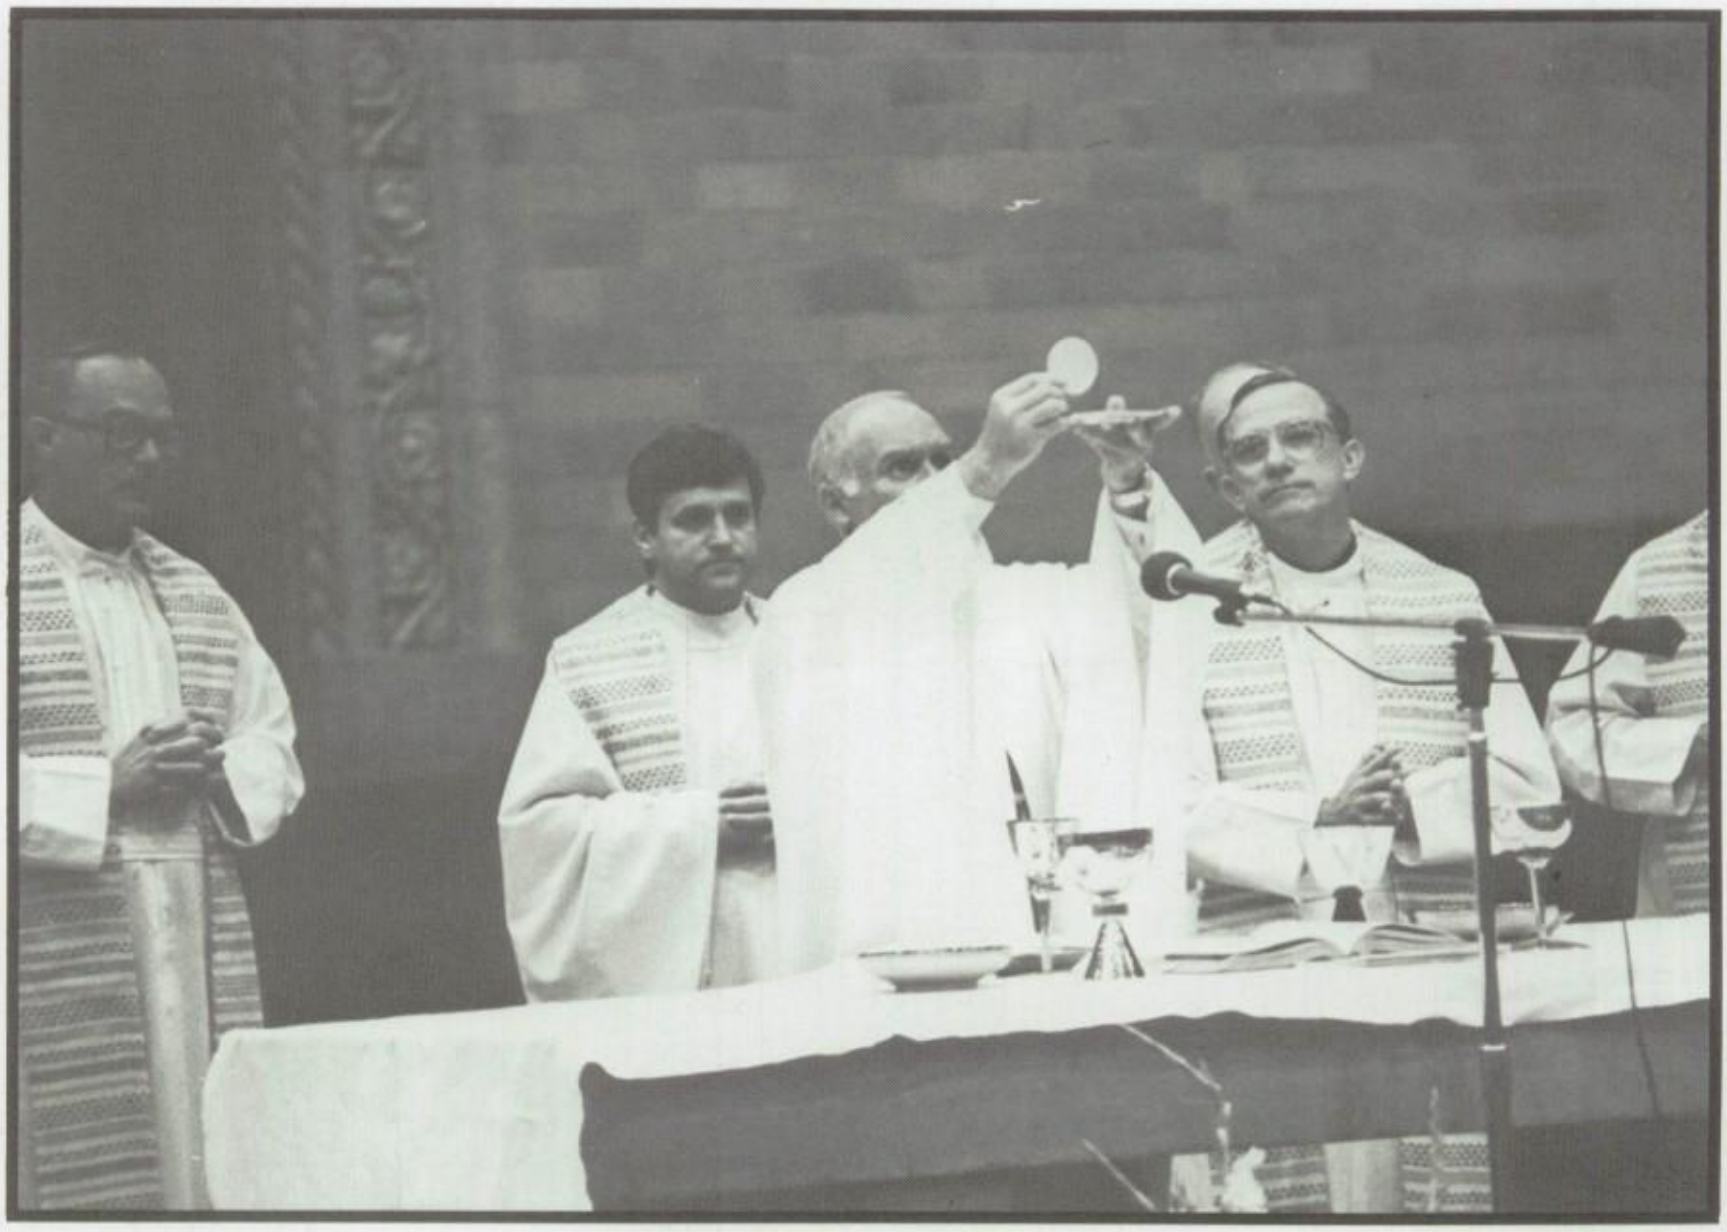
I'LL FOLLOW THE SON



Brotherhood, the Christian way, The Catholic Faith these lie deep in the heart of Seton Hall Prep. Beginning as a freshman and continuing through senior year a strong spiritual outlook is instilled into the Prep student largely because of the existence of the Knights of Setonia.

On the first Thursday of each month the Knights join together with priests and faculty in the celebration of the Eucharist. These masses, because they openly express the Prep's strong faith in the Church, are all special. Yet some have even more special meanings such as the one offered in memory of a fellow Setonian, Daniel O'Callaghan.

Additionally, both students and faculty have the opportunity to attend masses which take place several times a day in the Prep Chapel. Also, the Chapel is always kept open as to further encourage the Prep student to deepen his faith.

Through daily prayers, the Psalms that are read over the public address each morning, the gathering of the whole Prep community for holiday liturgical celebration, and numerous other things, The Knights of Setonia carry on the Christian tradition in the school. The Knights of Setonia encourage each person to grow, both in himself and in Christ. The underlying goal of all those involved with Seton Hall Prep.

THE PIRATE

The 1984-85 Pirate once again continued to inform the Prep community of the happenings and activities that went on during the school year. The first page of the Pira Pirate, the News Page, handled by Steve Smith and provided coverage of the Prep's big events. Jeff Cromie's Editorial Page presented the views, opinions, and ideas of the students throughout the year. The Editorial Page Cartoon, drawn by Jeff O'Connell, greatly enhanced this page. The Feature page was run by Henry Brumlik and covered the events of the various clubs and organizations around the Prep. Last, but certainly not least, was the Sports Page which was coordinated by Dan McAddams and his assistant Eddy Zazzali.

The Pirate's success was in large part do to the Editor-in-Chief, Greg Costano, who made sure everything ran smoothly. Mr. Binkowski once again acted as moderator and guided the staff in their endeavors. Also contributing were Typing Editor, Ken Waddell; Photography Editor Ed Finnegan; Art Editor, Dan Maloney; and numerous other Pirate staff contributors.

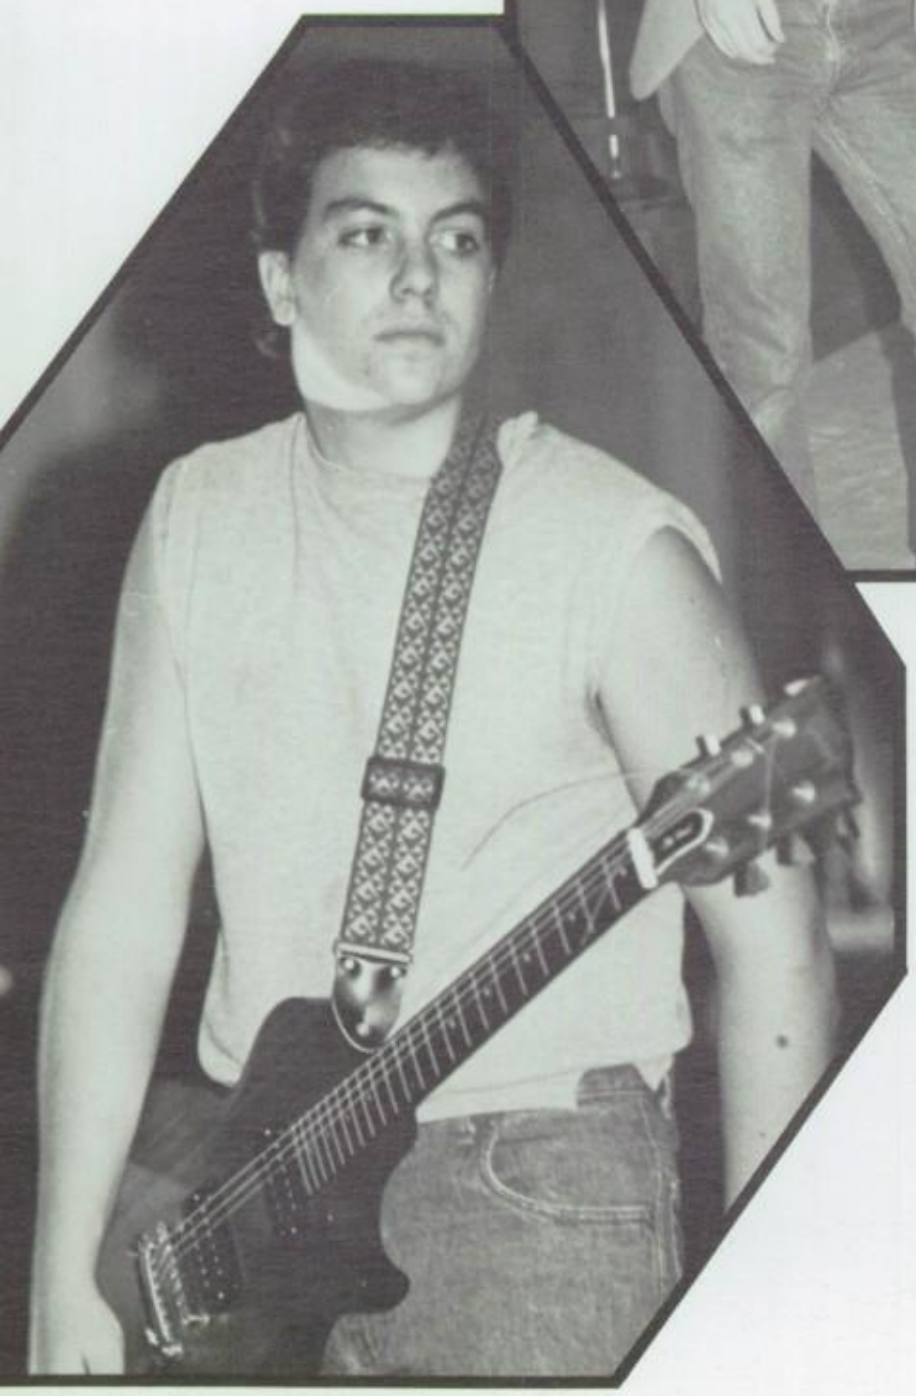
TICKET TO RIDE



Once again the Coffee House committee coordinated numerous dances for the benefit of the Prep's social life. This industrious committee, under the leadership of co-chairman Terry Lally and Greg Castano, pursued an active schedule with dances every month or two. With the help and dedication of Mr. Joseph Walsh, these "parties" were always run smoothly and successfully.

The sold out opening Coffee House was a smashing success. Members of the Pep community and girls from various local schools danced the night away in the (Duffy Hall) cafeteria. This standing-room only event enjoyed the musical six of disco, rock and dance music provided by Prep D. J.

In the next two dances, spirits were high as the students enjoyed live music performed by two rock bands made up of Prep students. The Notorious Clams and Emergency No Parking energetically and enthusiastically excited the audience. These rock dances were held in the much larger and less restricting confines of the Unversity Student Center.

Due to the broad musical taste of the Prep community, the fourth dance was a disco dance. Always very popular, this event was once again packed. D.J. Willie Vic had the place rocking in the cafeteria. All in all, this year's Coffee House calendar was extremely successful.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The use of one's God-given talents is one of the main values stressed at the Prep. The National Honor Society members use their talents to the best of their ability. Gifted intellectually, the students of the Society help struggling classmates by tutoring them in various subjects, such as algebra, geometry, Spanish and biology. Through the organization of Vice-President Mark Minotti, the program has been a complete success.

Receiving a membership to the National Honor Society is an outstanding accomplishment. The candidates must have at least a 4.0 grade point average, show leadership qualities and be an active member in a community program. Even with these strict requirements, fifty-five students have become members of the Society.

The tutoring program is only one of the goals of the Society. Through the leadership of its moderator, Mr. Walter McMahon, its President Robert Heckler, and its Vice-President Mark Minotti, the Society came together as a group to accomplish most of its goals. Other projects the Society took on were helping Mr. Klimowicz in the library, and, under the guidance of senior Ray Chen, the sophomores helped sort out software for the Prep's computers.

Above right: The Society Members. Missing: B. Formisano Below: Pres. M. Minotti, V.P. R. Heckler, and Mr. McMahon.

Already with a large number of underclassmen and more expected members, the size of the organization should increase. With continued leadership of Mr. McMahon and the officers, the National Honor Society should continue its current projects and initiate future projects.

PAPERBACK WRITER

The 1984-1985 Spectrum, the Prep's literary and artistic publication, was a success again. Thanks to the outstanding leadership of Editor-in-Chief Luis Salazar and Assistant Editor Robert Toole, the spectrum once again presented the students with interesting stories, poems, and essays, all under the guidance of Mr. William Casey. The superb artwork that accompanied the literary output came mainly from Mr. Randy Schweitzer's art classes.

This year's Sepctrum was brilliantly staffed by Luis Salazar, Robert Toole, Richard Keybart, David Mcmanus, and Roman Pones.

The purpose of the Spectrum is twofold; it offers those literary-minded people who enjoy creative writing an opportunity to see their work in published form, and it presents all the students and faculty members an enlighting and entertaining publication for their reading enjoyment.

IT'S FOR YOU

As the first meeting of the Tower staff ended, it was obvious to all that the production of the 1985 Tower was not going to be an easy task. Unfortunately, the predictions from that first meeting came true. The Tower staff came to know and "love" the almost famous Tower Office. When the longtime moderator. Mr. Joseph Hoffman, decided to retire from the publication of the yearbook, Mr. Joseph Walsh took over the glorious role of moderator and has been our "great supporter" during the many long hours of work on the publication.

The "fearless leader" of the Tower is Editor-in-Chief Sean Martin. His job has been to coordinate the efforts of the staff and to make sure deadlines were met. The Associate Editor - in-Chief is Jeffrey Cromie who has been there to help Sean work with the editors of each individual section.

One section that did not require too much help was the underclassmen section which is headed by Terry Lally. Terry overcame the tedious test of identifying the underclassmen and handed his section in on time.

Joe Minish dealt with lost pictures and lost time during his reign as Faculty Editor. Although Joe had to deal with many complications, he kept his cool and made his deadline with the help of Robert Ennis.

Next came the dreaded senior section, handled by Senior Editor Lou DiGiovine. Lou got an early start on gathering senior captions. Although it was tough proof-reading and editing the captions, Lou was able to design a unique section.

Dave McManus had the prestigious position of Editor of the Activities Section. Dave had the frustrating job of scheduling the groups for pictures and making sure that the articles were handed in on time.

The sports section was run by Steve Wisz. Steve was constantly bothered by athletes begging him to put their pictures in the section. Steve was able to get some outstanding pictures from Photography Editor Ed Finnegan and from Mr. Richard Morris.

Finally, Ed Zazzali took on the tremendous job of Business Editor. Ed had to deal with too many pages and not enough ads to fill all the pages, but through hard work things worked out.

All in all, the Tower and the staff made it. The road was long and had many curves, but through unbelievable deadlines and marathon sessions, the 1985 Tower is complete.

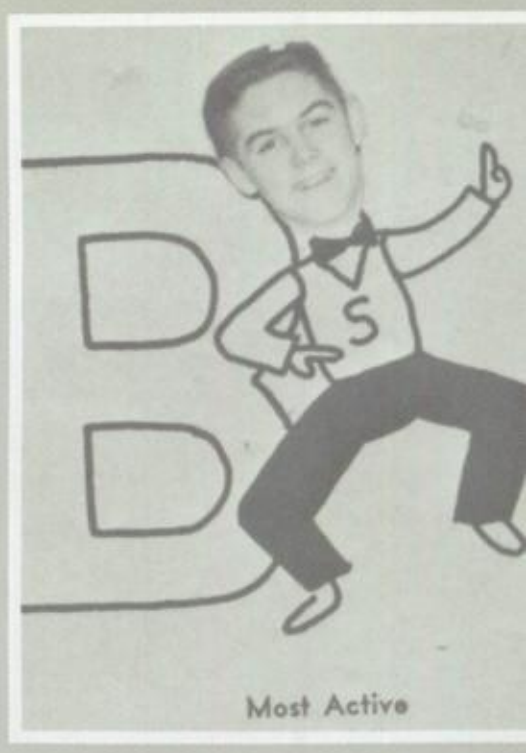
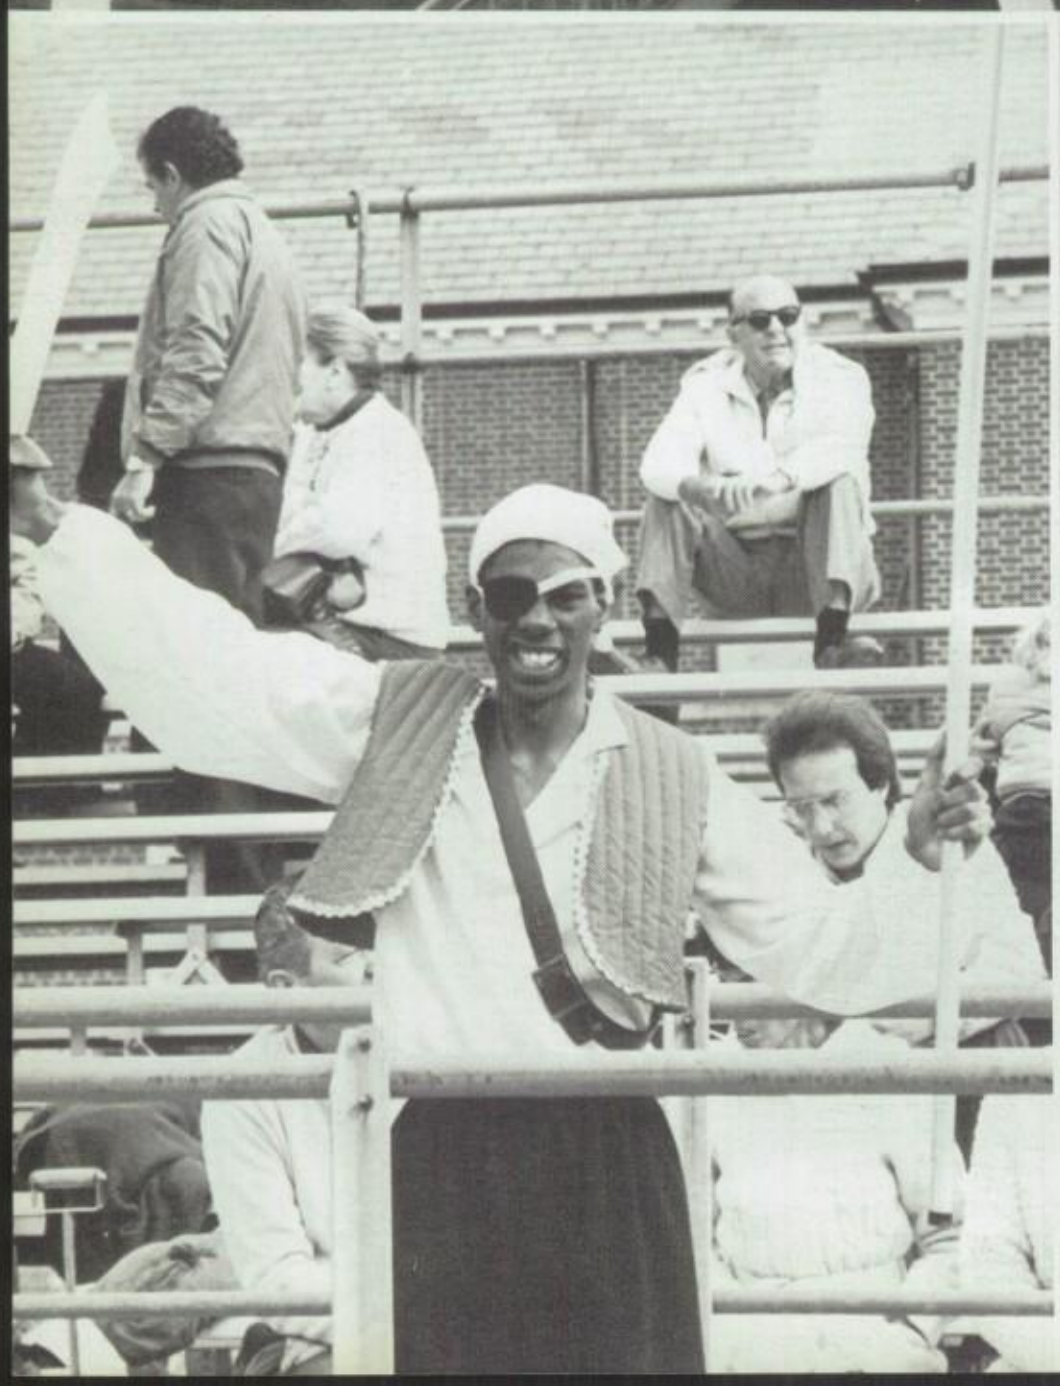
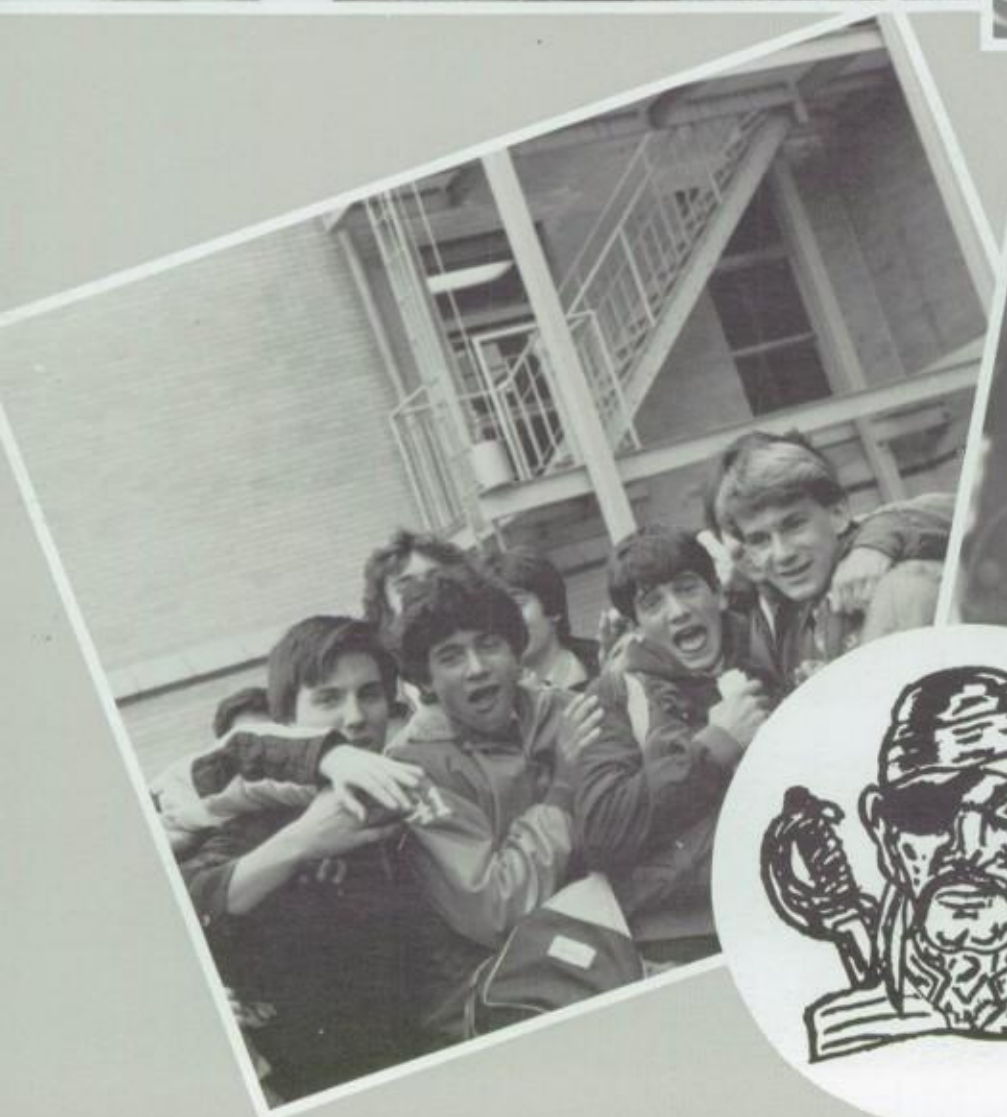
MORE FRAT





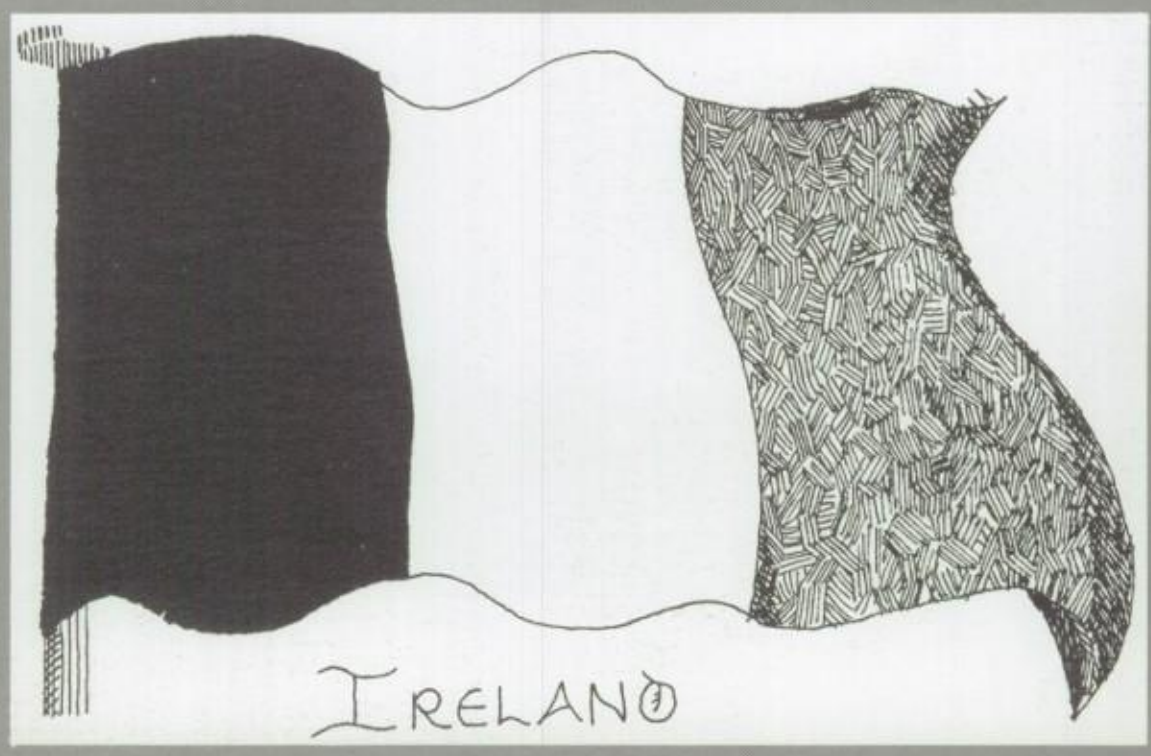


IRISH CLUB

The Seton Hall Prep Irish Club has been, since its inception four years ago, one of the most represented cultural organizations in the school. The club was established for the enrichment and furthering of knowledge of the Irish heritage of its members. The Irish club owes a great deal to Fr. William Giblin, for moderating.

The 1984-85 Irish Club actually started in May of '84 with the election of the following year's officers. Scores of people were up for nomination but it was easily won by three dynamic seniors. The victory was for the ticket of Stephen Smith-President, Brian Fell-Vice-president, and Chris Duggan-Sergeant-at-arms. With the leadership stable, the Irish Club started moving.

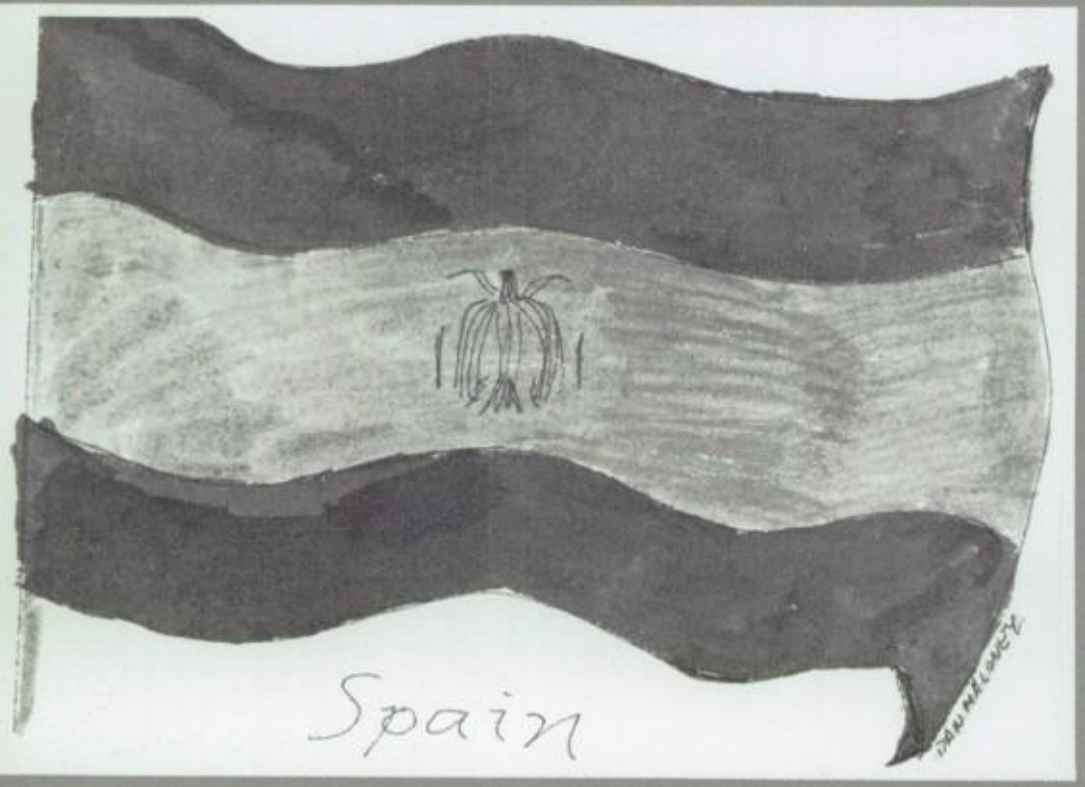
The First of many trips was to the College of St. Elizabeth for an Irish cultural festival, or FEIS. Several of the club's members attended this very worthwile event and learned about several different facets of Irish life.



SPANISH CLUB

This year's Spanish Club, under the leadership of President Carlos Campos, proved to be a very exciting year.. The moderator, Miss Vera Cinquino, scheduled various trips, and adventures introducing many unique characteristics of the Spanish society.

During the first meeting of the Spanish Club the members planned a trip to the erotic Sun Coast of Spain. The Club also planned several trips to various Spanish restaurants where club members were able to sample many different Spanish dishes.



Over the past few years the attendance has largely increased thus allowing the club to keep busy with numerous activities. . These activities served to inform and to help bring about an awareness of the many customs of the Spanish culture.

ITALIAN CLUB

In the diversified cultural community at Seton Hall P Prep the Italian Club stands out as the strongest.. The club', with almost one hundred members, is the most act active and supportive in the community. Moderated by Mr. Tony Lupica and staffed by Pres. Ernie Santorelli, Vice-presidents Joe Cicala, Giuseppe Giacomazza, and Robert Peloso; Sec/Treas. Steve Ketay and Generosa Scala; Seargeant at Arms Ken Fusco and Darrin Antonelli.

During Christmas, apparty was held by the club including a wide assortment of food ranging from manicotti, linguini, and scungilli, The party was a great success and only anotter event in the club's many activities. Then, during Easter vacation, the club took its annual trip to Italy which included visiting the Italian section of Switzerland.

Another of the club's traditions is the Bocce Ball tournament which takes place in the spring. This matches two-man teams in a series of games until one is victorious.

As a result of all these activities, the Italian Club continues to be a success and with the great spirit of its members, it should remain successful in the year's to come.

VIVA ITALIA!

The 1984-85 Afro-American Club proved to be a very successful one. The club has always been a very active one, but this year's club surpassed itself. Its many activities have included cultural events and fund raisers, which were both intellectually and economically beneficial.

This year's members, moderated by Mr. Jack O'Rourk: and led by senior Jameel Spencer, took trips to the New York Museum of Natural History and to the Museum of Modern Art where they were able to learn more about African culture as well as many other cultures of the world.

Additionally, the club saw educational and contemporary films which proved to be interesting as well as informative. One such film was A Soldier's Story. This fine movie gave the club a better understanding of the struggle that generations of blacks have went through for civil rights.

Finally, the club held several dances in order to provide entertainment for club members. These dances also helped to raise money for this year's activities. All those involved with the club should be very proud of their success and their heritage.

SVOBODA

The students for a free Ukraine, now under moderation by Mr. Metelsky, has seen its largest turnout of students in years. All of the members are active in Plast, a Ukranian youth organization based on scouting, or Suma, a similar Ukranian organization. Many members also attend Ukranian school on Saturday to study Ukranian language, literature, history, geography, and religion.

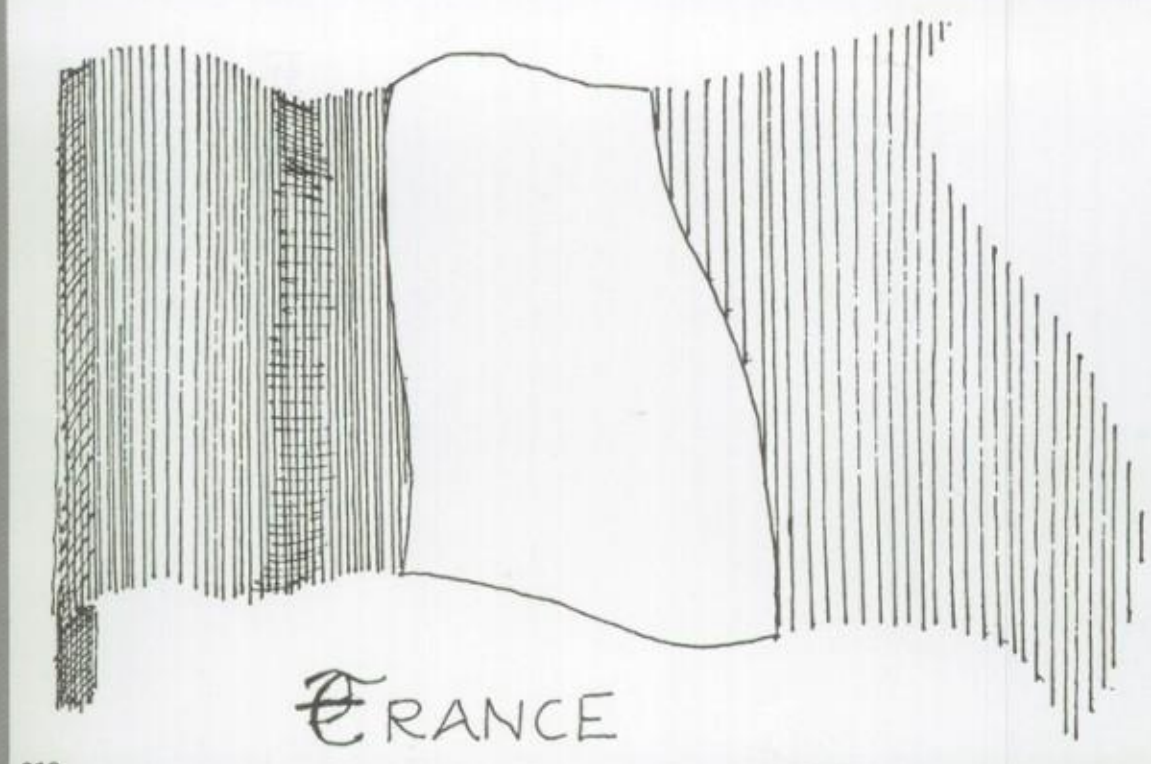
The dtudents for a free Ukrain attempt to inform the other students and faculty of Seton Hall Prep that the Ukrain has its own culture, language, history, religion, and literature, very different from that of Russsia. This year, the students for a free Ukrain plan to set up a display of Ukranian art and a traditional Easter meal to spread awareness of Ukranian culture throughout the Prep. In this display will be many Pysanka, beautifully deorated Ukranian Easter eggs. Plans are being made for a liturgical mass in the spring.

GERMAN CLUB

The opportunity to explore the culture of a foreign country was once again provided by the German Club this past year. Under the guidance of club presidents Jeff Lynch and Bill Butterbrodt, the members found the club's varied activities very rewarding. Fr. Joseph Wortmann, the club's moderator, celebrated the traditional Christmas Mass in German. Some club members were able to spend their Easter vacation touring Germany, Switzerland, and Austria with Fr. Kevin Hanbury. So that some true German cuisine could be sampled, presidents Lynch and Butterbrodt planned an excursion to a local German restaurant. Also, Fr. Wortmann, through his personal slides and colorful stories, shared his vast knowledge of Germany and its culture.

FRENCH CLUB

As usual, The French Club was extremely active this year. Under the excelent leadership of President Henry Brumlik the club participated in many areas. Most notable of their endeavors was a much celebrated football game with the members of the German Club. The game was competitive and all involved enjoyed themselves. The Club also experienced some French culture.



The students viewed films about life in France and read French magazines. A trip to a French restaurant for dinner was also planned. These activities drew praire from the Club members.

"I believe that the activities were well picked and well organized" stated Robert Keane, a senior member of the Club. Club moderator Mr. William Safranek was also pleased with this years club. He is looking forward to next year.

MAGICAL MYSTERY

HAPPY FOURTH

It is more than likely that if one has not already participated in a Search weekend, he has asked a friend or fellow student how it was. He probably just shook his head and said he could not explain. This is true. It is impossible to express in words the powerful experience of Search, all one can say with assurity is that it is a wonderful experience, and more young people should be open to it.

It is understandable for people to be skeptical of Search. Founded in 1970, it has always been questioned about its effect on its participants. Anything that has positive results, as Search does, is open for question. What would happen to me if I went on Search? Would I change? Will they brainwash me? This is nonsense. Search brings young people together in a way unlike any

DOCTOR ROBERT!!!

Many students have aspirations of becoming doctors. Seton Hall's Future Physicians Club tries to help them realize this goal. The club is ably moderated by Prep teacher Mr. Robert Wilhelm, who tries to give members a feeling for the career they wish to pursue. To do this the club sponsors CPR courses, trips, and various other activites for the students' benefit.

Among these activities is the student trainer's program. It gives those interested "on the job training." This is designed for those who wish to work directly with the athletes and the injuries incurred by them.

Hopefully, the club will continue to thrive and help people achieve their goals.

ENGINEERING CLUB

What is engineering? That is a question the Engineering Club tries to answer for its members. The Engineering Club does not try to explain one field of engineering, like electrical engineering, but it tries to explain engineering in general. The club shows what engineering is through speakers and projects. Under the leadership of its moderator, Sr. Regina Cordis Conboy S.C. and its Officers Robert Heckler, president Mark Minotti, vice-president, and Steve Wisz, Secretary-Treasurer, the Engineering Club had a successful year.

The main part of the activites of the club is its projects. This year the Engineering Club ran three projects: an egg drop contest, a bridge building contest, and a paper airplane flying contest. Through these projects, the members try to think like engineers. The projects also give the members a chance to become experienced in different fields of engineering.

LAWYERS' CLUB

As usual, the 1984-1985 Lawyers Club was ably moderated by Mr. Andrew Mitzak. The officers of this year's club were President Luis Saluzar, Vice-President Joseph Minish, Secretary Robert Ennis, and Treasurer Robert Keane. The group was active in many different facets of the law field, including participation in the New Jersey Mock Trail competition. In this competition all of the club's members were involved in some way. The parts acted out in the trial range from prosecuting and defense attornies to wittnesses and members of the jury. The trial players practiced for many hours and often gave up a free Saturday morning in order to make this competition a success. The members were instructed by a local attorney. With a proffesional's help and the hard work of all its members, our future Lawyers Club was able to make a fine showing in the competition.

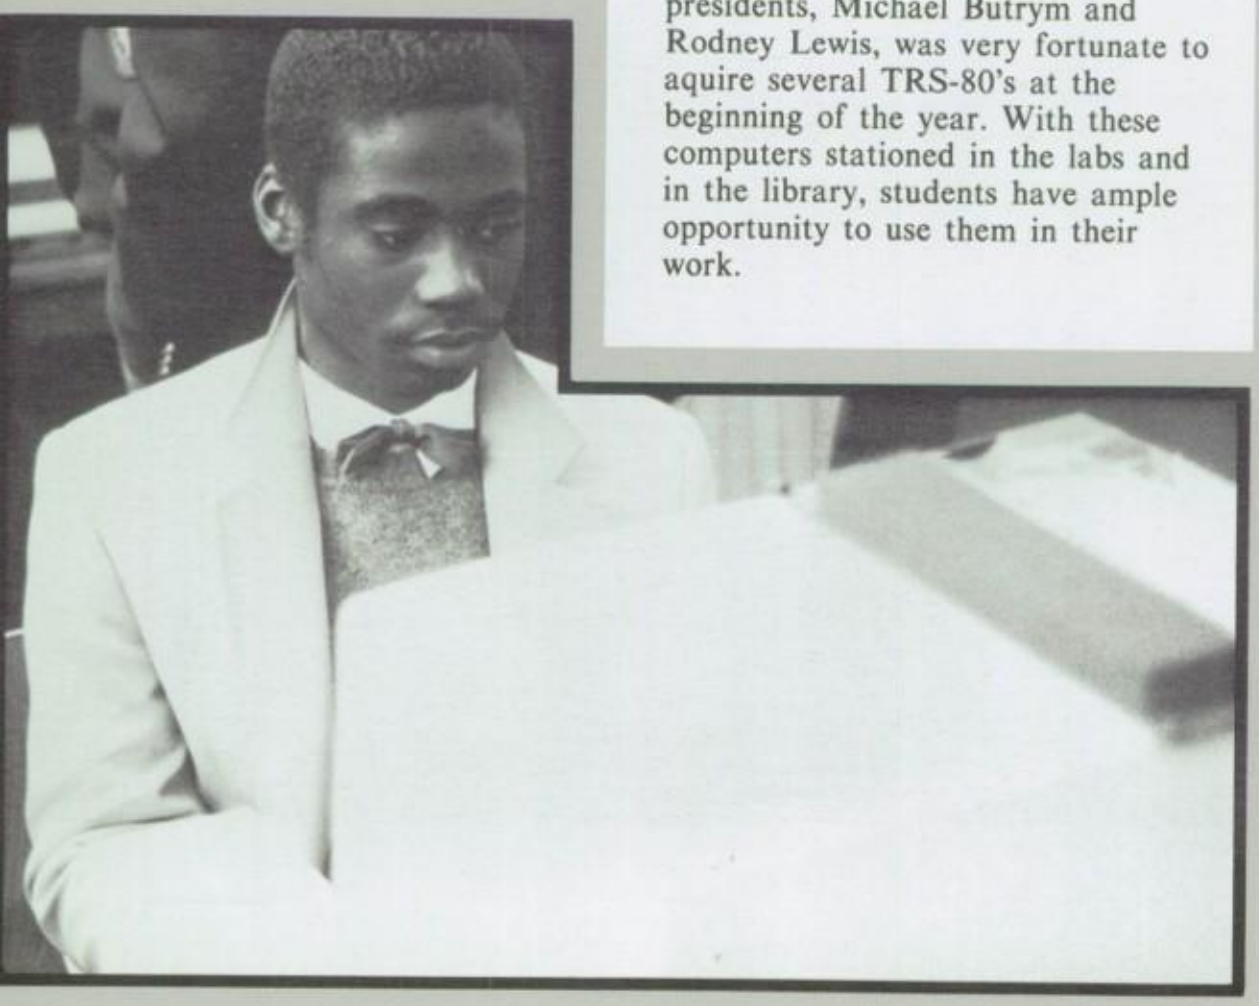
Later in the year the Lawyers' Club took a trip to the New Jersey State Court-House where they took a tour of building operations. Also, they viewed a trial in process so that its members could gain a better understanding of The United States Judicial System.

These activities made The Future Lawyers Club one of the most dynamic groups in the Prep community. The Club's officers thank Mr. Mitzak for all of his support and wish all of the underclassmen members good luck in keeping the Future Lawyers' Club thriving.

COMPUTER CLUB

Computers seem to be invading every aspect of our lives, and as a result, computer literacy has nearly become the fourth "R". The computer club agrees with computer experts in recognizing that not everyone will be able to program a computer, nor will everyone be required to do so. Instead, emphasis will shift from programing a computer to using a computer.

The Prep Computer Club, under the moderation of Mr. Kane, and led by president Raymond Chen, and vice-presidents, Michael Butrym and Rodney Lewis, was very fortunate to aquire several TRS-80's at the beginning of the year. With these computers stationed in the labs and in the library, students have ample opportunity to use them in their work.



For those new to computers, the Club hopes to introduce them to the use of the computer in schoolwork. It can be a word processor, calculate one's final grade, solve equations, simulate a genetic population, or balance chemical equations. For those more experienced with computers, the Club plans to present a method for algorithm development applicable to any target language. Assembly language programming for the TRS-80's Ataris, and Heath computers will also be taught for those who enjoy low-level programing.

ONE AND ONE IS TWO

The Prep Math Team, moderated by Mr. Aldo Itri, Fr. Martin Foran, and Mr. Joseph Mee, was extremely successful this year. Participating in contests with other schools in New Jersey and the Metropolitan area, the mathletes distinguished themselves as leaders.

In the Catholic Schools Math League, the Varsity team placed third. Ray Chen and Mark Minotti were the leading scorers with two perfect papers each. Dean Schaefer, Jeff Young, Henry Brumlick, Steve Wisz, Bob Heckler, and Eso Tiu were all instrumental in the team's success.

In the New Jersey Math League, Seton Hall Prep placed first in Essex County and tied for second in the entire state. Contributing to the team's success were Ray Chen, Mark Minotti, Dean Schaefer, Peter Farrell, Henry Brumlick, Mark Franciosa, and Jeff Ahlolm.

On November 15, the math team placed seventh in the annual New Jersey Math Contest. With over 100 schools and over 500 students participating, Ray Chen with a perfect score of 15 and Mark Minotti with a score of 13 placed among the top 19 students, and both recieved prizes.

In its newest league, The Iron Hills Math League, the Prep earned much respect by placing among the top schools in the league. Ten students participated in three meets spread over the course of the year.

The Seton Hall Prep Math Team has enjoyed an extremely successful year and they, and the school has much to be proud of.

CHECK MATE

The seemingly intricate and mind-boggling game of chess has captured the attention of many students this years at the Prep. Chess is often misunderstood as a game only for the old men or geniuses. Well, this is not the case at the Prep. The members are often seen enjoying a pleasant game of chess, whether they are pondering a next move, or examining various positions and tactics. The chess team is also one of the few extracurricular functions which is active every day. Its moderator is Mr. William Coburn.

The chess club has two teams, the A team and the B team which compete interschoolastically. The A Team is led by its captain, Eso Tiu, a Senior. It also consists of Senior Kevin Helewa, juniors Larry Bernstein, Cesar Lumba, Damian Handzy, and sophomores Ken Murphy and Dean Schaefer, all of whom are highly rated players. The B team, which is led by Senior Trushar Sheth consists of Mike Sharpe, Charles Prothero, Thomas Oh, Nestor Handzy, John Formisano, Peralte Paul, Louis Sheffey, and Sy Cheng, all of whom are competitive players.

Overall, the chess club has been very successful this year, and it is looking forward to another outstanding season.

ASK ME WHY

This year, the Prep Quiz Bowl Team took part in a competition outside of the usual Suburban Cablevision TV-3 Challenge program. The Morris Hills Battle of Brilliance consists of three Jeopardy-type rounds of questions. For this meet, the Prep added Henry Brumlik to its Challenge team of Pete Farrell, Raymond Chen, Sean Mullin, and Nick D'Andrea. The team was pleasantly surprised to find itself in the semi-final round. At this point, however, it lost a close match to Whippany Park High School and was eliminated from the competition.

In Challlenge, the Prep soundly defeated Mother Seton and Columbia High School to advance to the third round. The first round consists of toss-up questions with the opportunity to pick up points from bonus questions. The second round, however, now asks members of each team to answer questions in a category which the team has selected. In this round, the Prep has found the most success with the spelling category. The final round consists of more toss-up questions; however, if a team answers a question incorrectly, the other team may answer it for twice as many points. This is the most crucial of the three rounds since a considerable lead can be erased by a few wrong answers.

TELL ME WHY

Many people hear the word "Forensics" and think about a popular T. V. series on not too many years ago. Others, think that the Forensics Society is nothing but a debating team. On the contrary, forensics consists of a wide field of different speech events. Everything from reading aloud out of a storybook to writing and presenting your own speech encompasses forensics.

About once every month, the forensics moderator, Mr. Anthony Pucciarelli, leads his team into competition against other Catholic and private schools. The team, lead by Junior Steve Dublanica, always lives up to the high standards of Seton Hall Prep.

Seniors participating in this year's team are Rick Kebart and Lou DiGiovine-Drama; and Paul Carter-Extemperaneous Speaking; and Henry Brumlick-Student Congress. Several promising underclassmen also participate, and this team looks very good.

With the coaching, guidance, and dedication of Mr. Pucciarelli, the Forensics team has risen from practically nothing to another winning team at the Prep. Thanks to him, excellence has become a tradition.

AND YOUR BIRD CAN SING

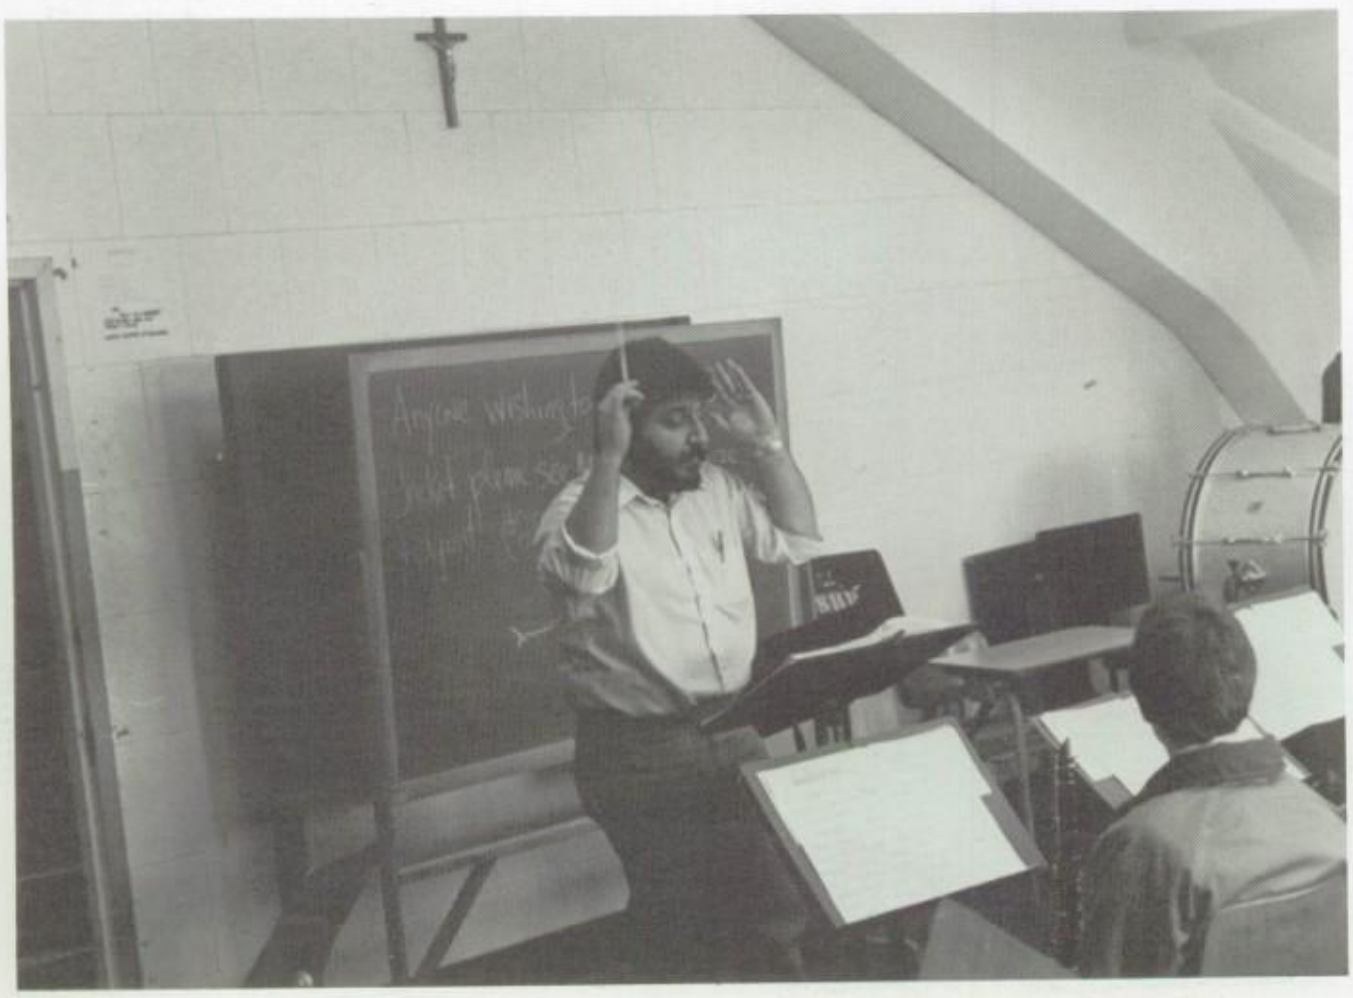
Below: Mr. Neglia directing the Band.



Once again, this year, the isles and rooms of Mooney Hall resounded with the sounds of the Prep and conducted by Mr. Neglia. This hardworking team which meet seven times a week to practice, put on two performances during the school year. One at Christmas and one during the spring. This year, band performances featured pieces such as the theme from Superman, On Broadway, 1812 Overture, Sophisticated Ladies, and Beethovens Fifth Symphony as well as the appearance of Santa Claus at the Christmas performance.

Mr. Neglia is extremely proud of the Band this year and feels that there are many good players in it. He also feels that band is an excellent activity for the students to be involved in since it allows for freshman, sophomores, juniors, and seniors all to participate together which doesn't occur in many other school activities.

The chorus also made a strong showing this year at all of the school masses. The chorus, which is comprised of mostly juniors and seniors, spend much time learning harmony and lyrics so that the school masses can be enhanced with music. Also, this year the chorus featured two guitarists who played and sang along with Mr. Neglia and the chorus. Even though there isn't a chorus elective this year, they still look and sound great!

IMAGINE

Under the experienced direction of Miss Kathy Detlet, the Drama Society was off to a rolling start again this year. Workshops were held earlier in the year enabling inexperienced freshman and sophomores to discover their own hidden talents. The workshops also gave time to the experienced junior and Senior thespians for practice and polishing.

In conjunction with the Theater Arts class, the Drama Society has partaken in several trips. The Theater Arts class attended an inspiring and helpful workshop at Montclair State College. The day spent with actors from various schools of our state was insightful.

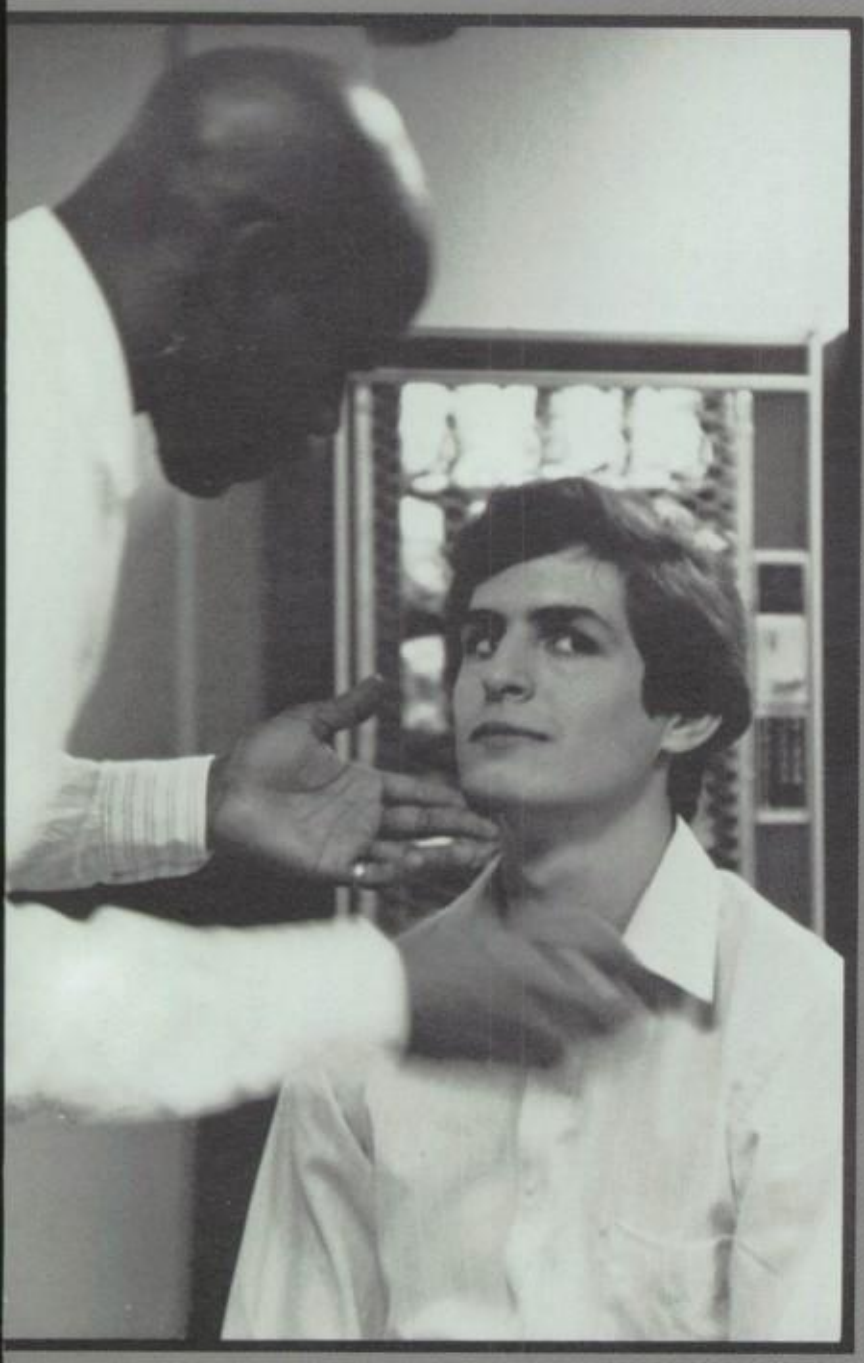
One trip into New York City was to see Neil Simon's "Brighton Beach Memoirs" and other trips to the city are being planned.

This year's planned production will not be a full two act play, but a shorter one act one. Due to a shortage of time a full fledged production would be impossible; but his will not detract from the fine productions of the past. With fine actors like Lou DeGiovine, Ken Waddell, Rick Kebart, Niel Hornish, Joe Pacillo, and others, hopes are high.

The move to West Orange is an added plus. The use of our own facilities will ensure a more fruitful and productive future.



Seton Hall Preparatory School

PRESENTS

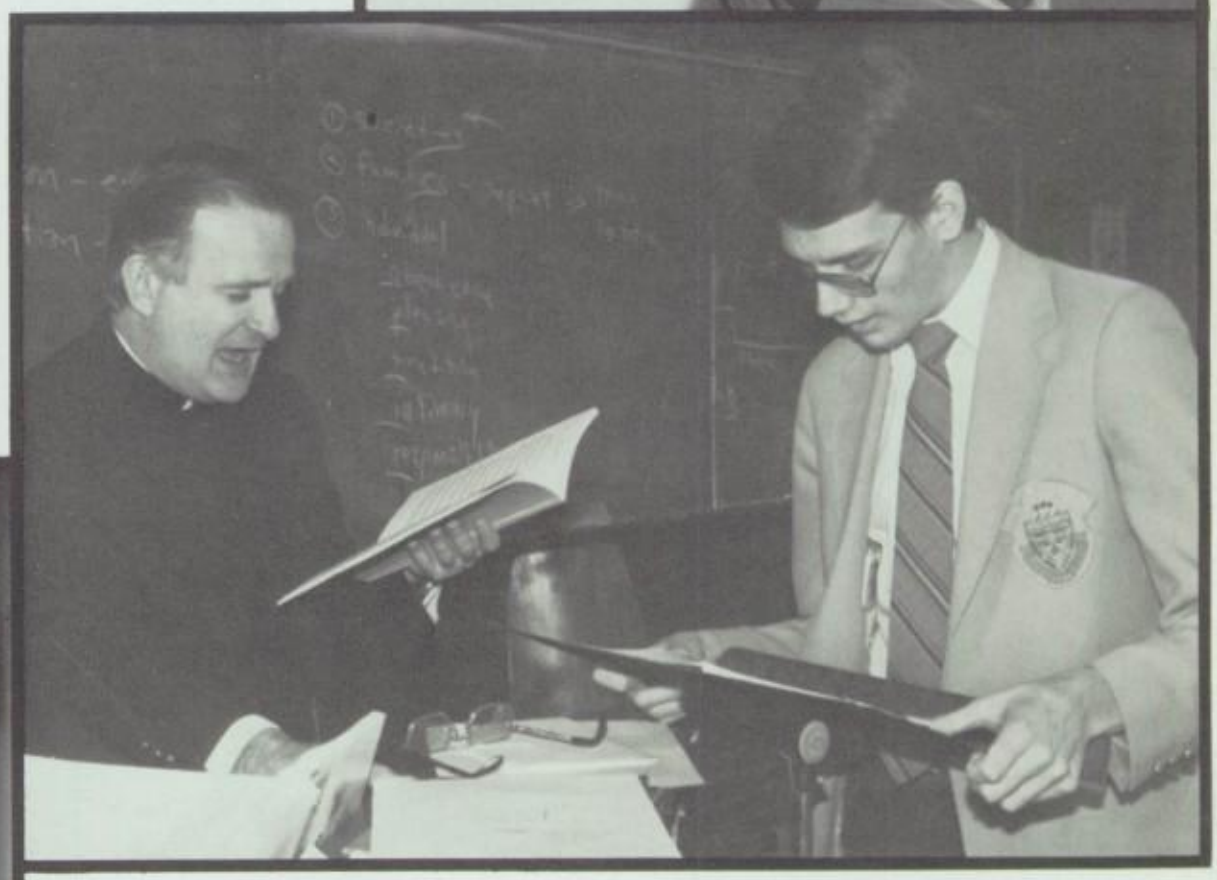
Meredith Willson's

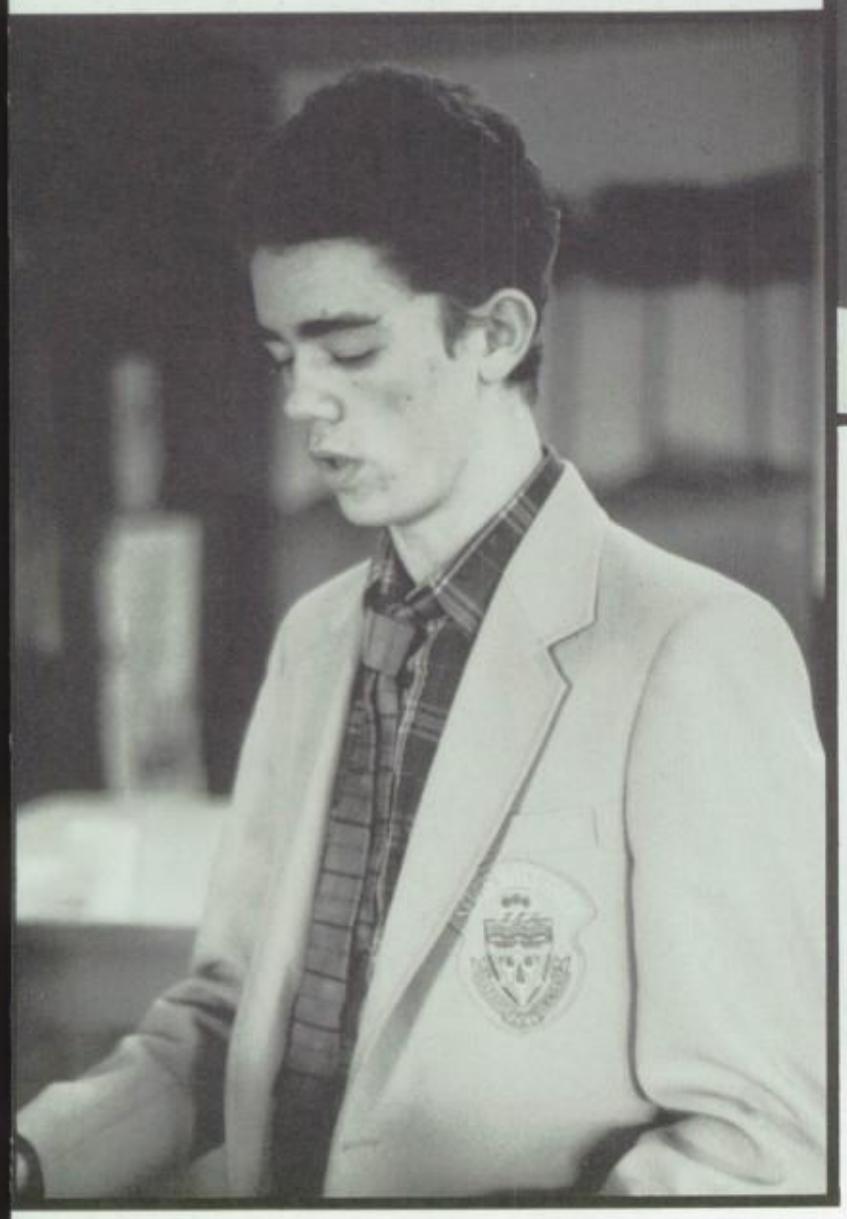
The year 1985 marked the end of a Prep tradition, as "The Music Man" became the final musical to be presented in Walsh Gymnasium. Presented on the evenings of May 2-4, the Prep musical was again a stage triumph.

Professor Harold Hill, a.k.a 'The Music Man,' portrayed by Ken Waddell, chooses the stubborn people of River City, Iowa as the target of his scam. His old crony Washburn, played by Greg Costano, informs Hill of the town's excitement over a newly acquired pool table. Unaware that the pool table belongs to Mayor Shinn, played by Steve Smith, Hill urges the town to let him organize a boys' band to combat the corruption of its youth. Despite Hill's attempts to gain her trust, Marian Paroo, portrayed by Maureen Prout of Marylawn is suspicious. Nevertheless, Hill charms Marian's mother, Mrs. Paroo, played by Eileen Condon of Mt. St. Doniminic, into letting her young son Winthrop, played by Tim Smith, join the band. Marian discoveres that Hill has faked his musical credentials and intends to stay in town only long enough to collect money for instruments and band uniforms. The town has already been taken in by the idea of a band, however, and Hill has flattered most of the good ladies of River City, such as Mrs. Shinn, played by Michelle Barry of Marylawn, and Ethel Toffelmire, played by Gloria Montano of Mt. St. Doniminic, into believing in his good character. Good things begin happening. The members of the school board, played by Mario Macaluso, Greg Sweeney, Dan Maloney, and Joe Cancro, cease their quibbling and form a barbershop quartet. Tommy Djilas, played by Tim Dimarco, stops behaving like a hoodlum and aids Hill in organizing River City's youth. Hill also helps Winthrop to overcome his severe shyness. Marian falls in love with Hill and decides not to expose his scam, but Chralie Cowell, a travelling anvil salesman played by John Hensler, tells River City the truth about Hill's past. Hill proclaims his love for Marian, and they face the angry mob of River City citizens together. Hill calls the 'band', in its just-arrived uniforms, forward to perform They play terrible, but the townsfolk are enthralled, and all is well.

Few realize how many people are needed to make the Spring Musical a success. Mr. Joseph Neglia, the musical director, rehearsed long hours with the Prep orchestra and conducted all three performances. Mr. Randy Schweitzer, along with the Stage Crew, designed and constructed the sets. Finally, Fr. Anthony Kulig, who expressed his pleasure aobut the good turnout, especially among seniors, directed the musical as always.

Seton Hall Prep is grateful to the young ladies who have enhanced the cast. They represent East Orange Catholic, Marylawn of the Oranges, Mount St. Dominic Academy, Mount St. Mary's Academy, Oak Knoll, and St. Elizabeth Academy.





HERE, THERE, AND EVERYWHERE

Activity has always been a mainstay of the Prep community; Our students have kept themselves involved. They have even left the Prep to help other schools to enhance their activities. In this respect the students have gone to the local girls schools to participate in their musicals. In the past years, theri involvement has livened up many productions.

This year is no exception. Our students have done plays at the Academy of St. Elizabeth, Marylawn, and Lacoidare. Some of the seniors involved are Sean Martin, Greg Sweeney, Ken Waddell, Steve Smith, and Martin Buckingham. These men can be seen singing and dancing themselves into total enjoyment.

DAY TRIPPER

When the first flakes of snow begin to fall around the Prep campus and the various Prep sports and clubs remain indoors, the Ski Club turns outdoors to take to the slopes. Although membership to the club is limited because transportation is a problem, the club still manages to take about fifty eager skiers. The Club met on Tuesday afternoons during the ski season, and traveled by bus to Vernon Valley Great Gorge. Led by the Club moderation, Mr. Randy Schweitizer, the members spent the day skiing the various trails and slopes. Then, after a full afternoon and night of skiing, the club returned home around 11:30 PM to anxiously wait for the next weeks trip.

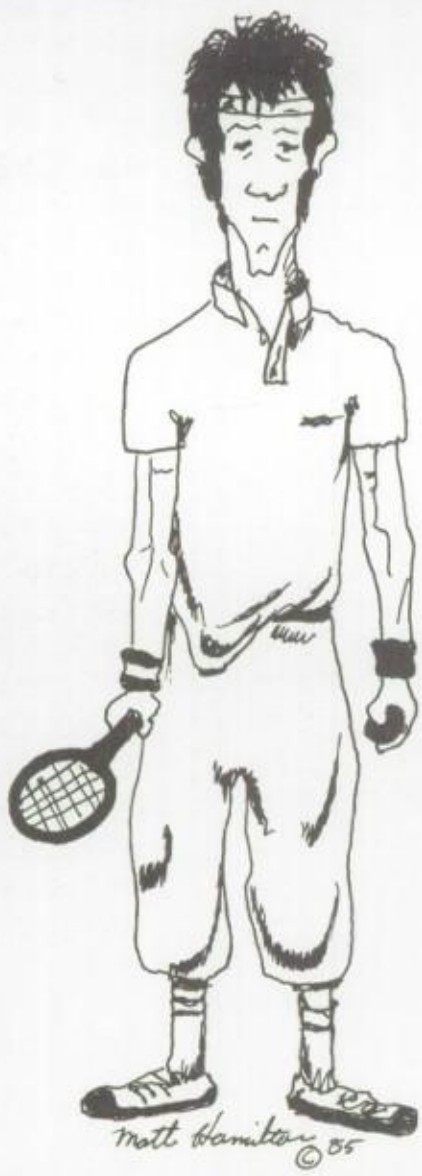
RACQUETBALL



As usual, the 1984-85 Racquetball Club was an outstanding success. The club was formed in 1980 by Father Kevin Hanbury, and through the past years he has developed it into one of the most popular activities at the Prep. The club's seventy-some-odd members meet every Friday after school and travel by van, bus, or car to the Courthouse in Millburn. There the members can compete against one another in a friendly atmosphere although the games are often very competitive and fast-paced.

Some of the most active members are Seniors Mark Minotti, Kevin Helewa, Bohdan Polanskyj, and Steve Sax who not only avidly participate, but also drive underclassmen on days when the bus is not available.

Through the continued efforts of Father Hanbury and the great interest that many underclassmen have taken to the sport, the Racquetball Club should continue to be a thriving success.

WHAT DOES ON ACTIVITIES

Leadership plays a significant role in every area of our lives today. We have leaders in the Church, leaders in our country, leaders in our home. Here at Seton Hill Prep we have an outstanding leader in our headmaster, Reverend Michael E. Kelly. Father Kelly represents many things to us here at the Prep. He is a wise teacher, a devout priest, a strong supporter, a diligent disciplinarian. He has dreams and goals for the school, but his interest in the students, "his boys," is probably his most outstanding achievement. Father Kelly is concerned with everyone at Seton Hall. He is most likely to come in contact with each student at one time or another. He cares about our studies, and whether things are going as well as they can be. He is quite a sports enthusiast and turns up at every sports function. He might slip into the cafeteria and sit down with the boys at lunch. He is out on the quad and in his office and just about anywhere you can imagine. Father Kelly is our leader and he works every day at his job.

The students at the Prep are grateful for having such an interested headmaster. They appreciate the support and concern which Father Kelly exhibits and thank him for the enthusiasm and interest which he shows in all areas of the school. For the seniors there will be many good memories of time spent with Father Kelly. For the underclassmen the future looks bright for students with such a strong leader. The entire student body says: "Thanks, Father Kelly, for being our leader, our headmaster, and our friend."

The winner of the "Academy Award" now brings you
THE SERIES D2 FILM TRANSPORT

Superbly engineered and produced under rigid quality control standards, the D2 Film Transport is the newest of all Rangertone motion picture film drive systems.

The unique electronic control system allows full pushbutton and/or remote control. This state-of-the art circuitry also eliminates the need for selsyn motors by utilizing full electronic interlock with any compatible motion picture projector, sound recorder or editing device.

The digital clock controlling the motor speed is crystal driven, insuring accurate film sync sound speed at either 24 or 25 f.p.s. regardless of the line frequency or voltage.

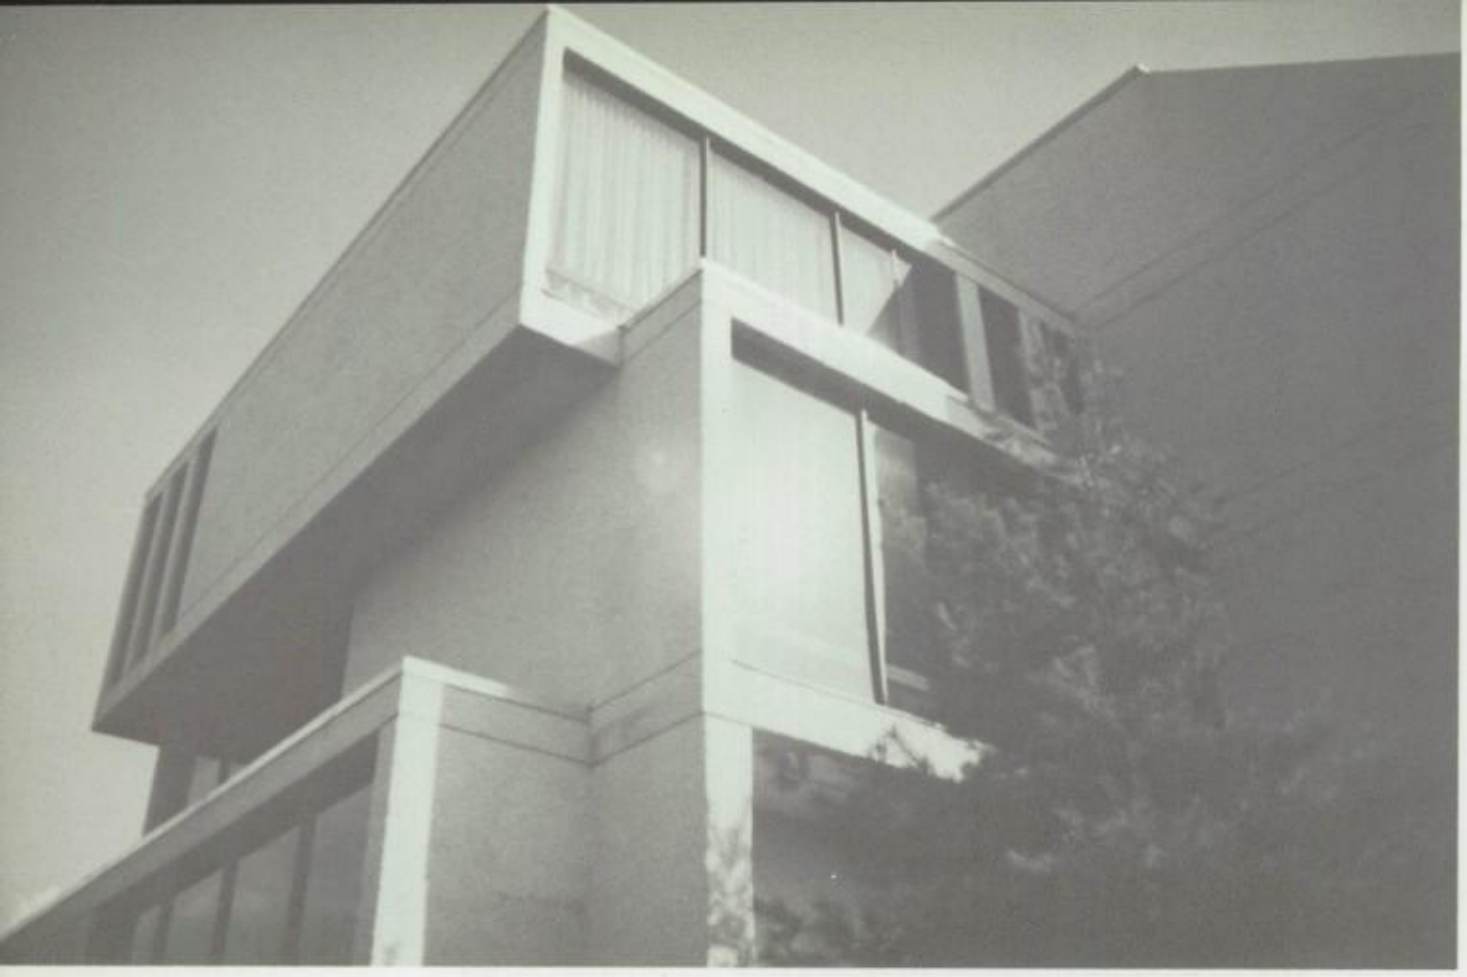
THERE'S A PLACE

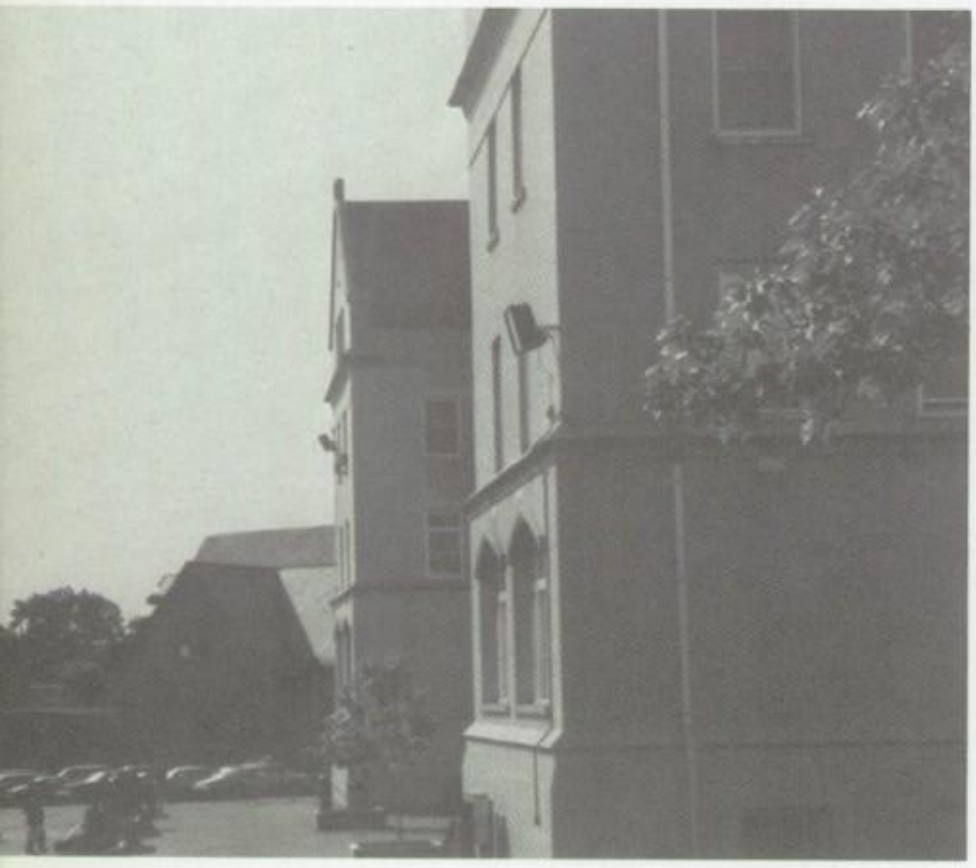
Since the founding of Seton Hall in 1856, the school has been relocated once, when it moved to its present campus in 1860. Since then The Hall has spent 124 years on this South Orange campus. After spending this period of time on the campus, the time has come for the Prep to almost completely separate itself from the university. We, the students of Seton Hall Prep, in celebrating this era in Seton Hall's history would like to give some brief ideas about what the school has gone through in its 128 year history.

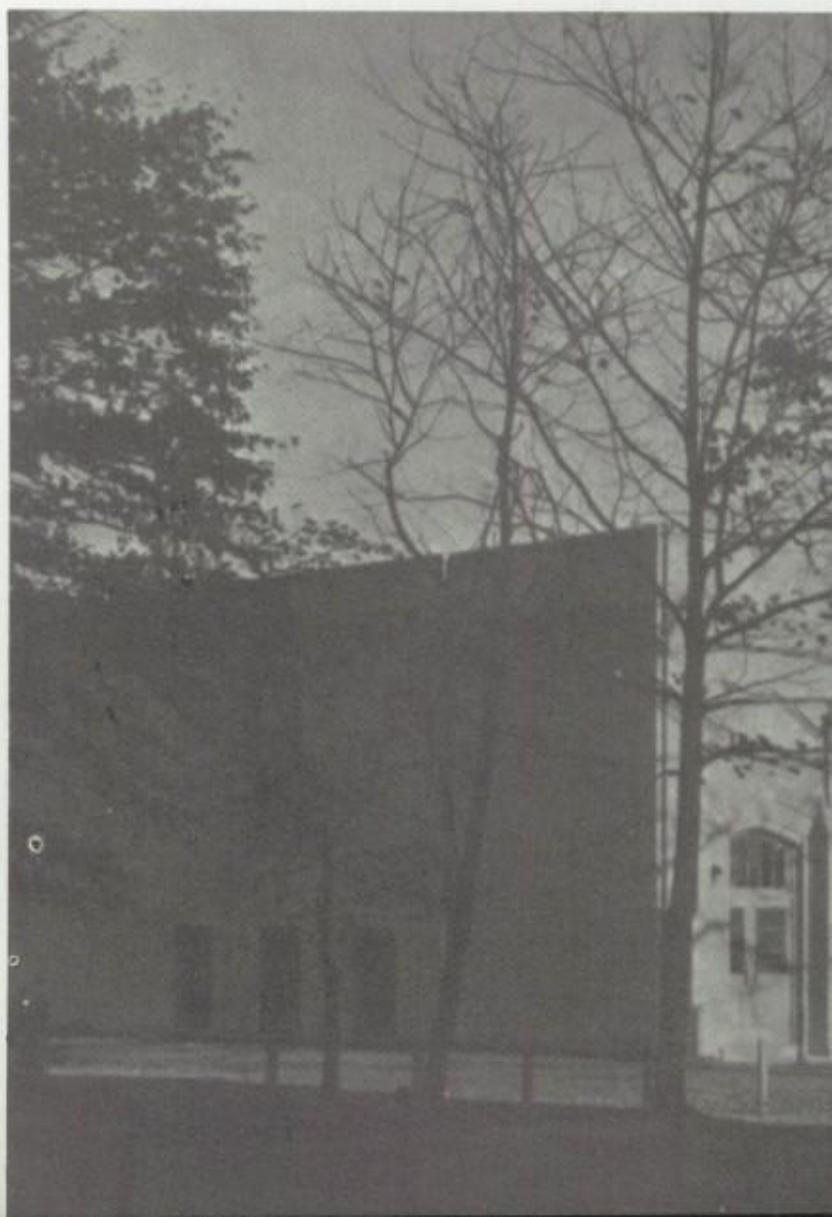
It all started 128 years ago when Bishop James Roosevelt Bailey, the first bishop of the diocese of Newark and nephew of Mother Elizabeth Ann Seton, began to plan and organize Seton Hall. He purchased an estate in Madison, New Jersey, now the site of St. Elizabeth's College, and transformed it into a Catholic prep, college, and seminary. The first class which entered Seton Hall College on September 1, 1856 had an enrollment of only five students, but by the end of the year the enrollment totaled almost forty.

Four years later, in 1860 because of growing enrollment and the distance from Newark, the home of most Catholics, Bishop Bailey requested that Fr. McQuaid search for a larger and more convenient site for Seton Hall's quarters. He did so by purchasing a mansion, located on 60 acres of land and situated on the site of the present campus, for 35,000 dollars. On March 8, 1861, Seton Hall was granted its charter by the State of New Jersey. Through this Seton Hall joined the ranks of the less than forty preparatory schools in the country before the Civil War. The Prep, at the beginning was not actually a high school but a department of the college which allowed students who were not able to attend college to prepare for their future studies.

In 1889, the Prep was organized as a distinct educational unit but still maintained its close association with the college by using the same campus and facilities. The Rev. Joseph J Synott, the sixth president of Seton Hall, completely reorganized the high school in 1897. From this arose the present Seton Hall Preparatory School with its high enrollment and its unqualified success in the preparation of young men for college studies and advantegeous careers in the business and professional worlds.

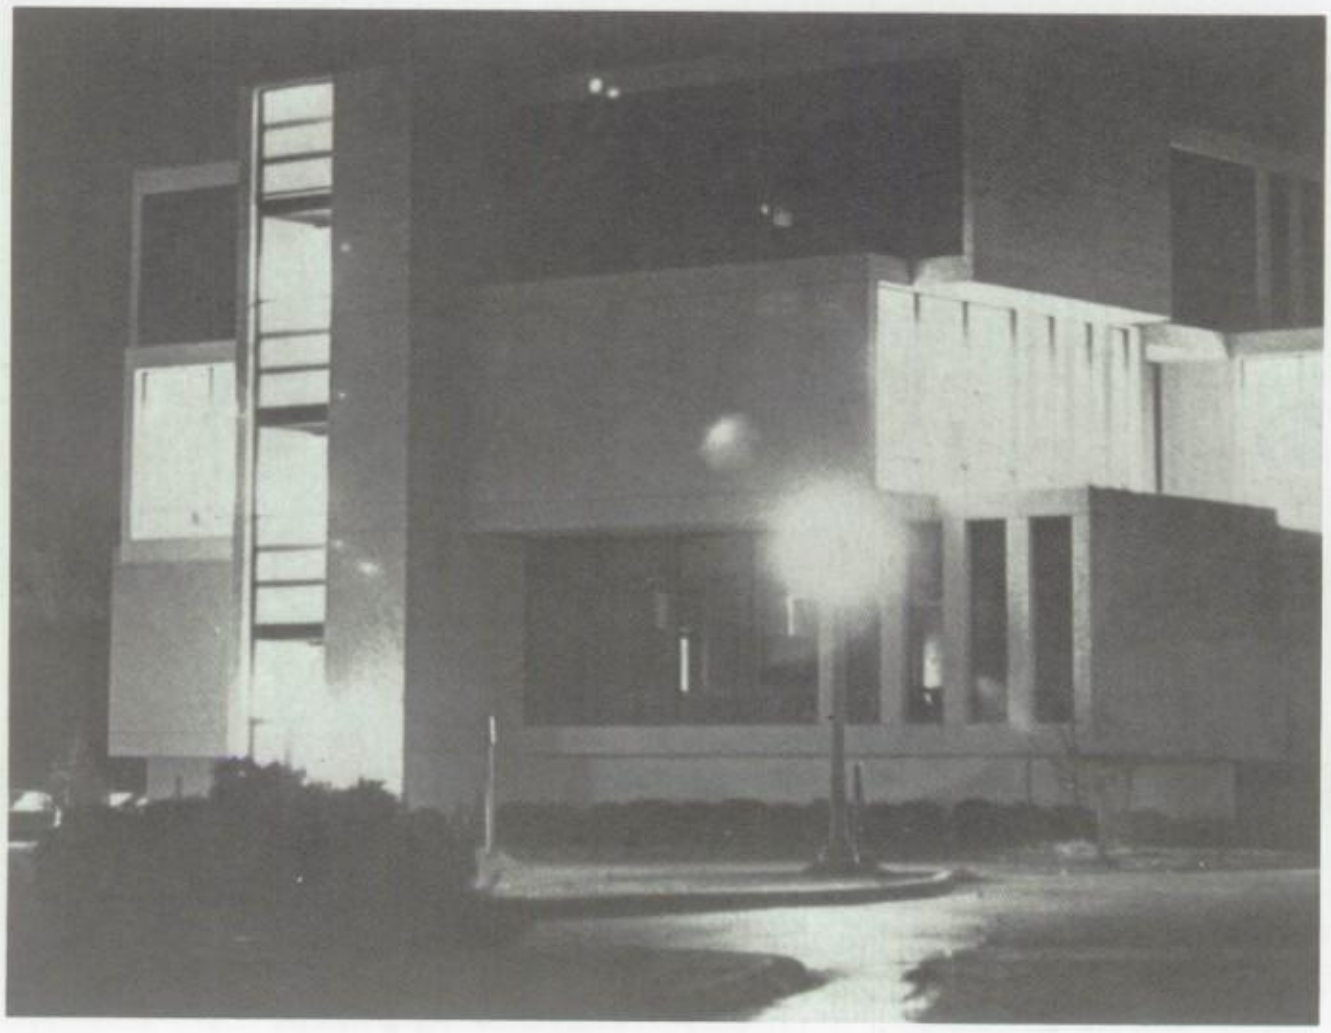






In 1909, a fire damaged The Hall only to be overshadowed when Msgr. James Mooney, president at the time, ordered the construction of two new buildings, Mooney Hall in 1909, and Bayley Hall in 1913.

In 1927 however, a very great change took place, For the many years that the college and the prep had been growing steadily they had not been separate. It was decided that more efficiency could be gained through a separation. To head the newly independent branch, was Rev. William N. Bradley, His first title was director, but it was changed to headmaster in 1936. The Prep was assigned to Mooney Hall, which, at the time was the largest, most attractive, and newest building on the campus.



The next great addition to The Hall came in 1940 with the addition of Walsh Gymnasium. Old Duffy Hall which is used as a cafeteria and classrooms, was the next addition followed by new Duffy Hall built in 1909 and 1972 respectively.

Over the years our school has experienced some lucky breaks, and some bad breaks and has not only survived but excelled in every way. In its 128 years of existance Seton Hall has evolved into a school which is known far and wide as a fine scholarly institution which the present students should be proud of attending.

ON FEBRUARY 6, 1985 THE OLD WEST ORANGE HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING LOCATED ON NORTHFIELD AVENUE WAS PURCHASED BY SETON HALL FOR 1.6 MILLION DOLLARS . . .

CONGRATULATIONS TO A FRIEND

Once in a while, a person comes along who is dedicated, intelligent, and amiable. Mr. John "Jack" O'Rourke is one of those people. For the past twenty-five years Mr. O'Rourke has given much of himself to the Prep. Since he returned to teach here in 1959, Jack O'Rourke has become an active part of the school community.

The following pages are just a small attempt to thank the man who willingly gives so much.

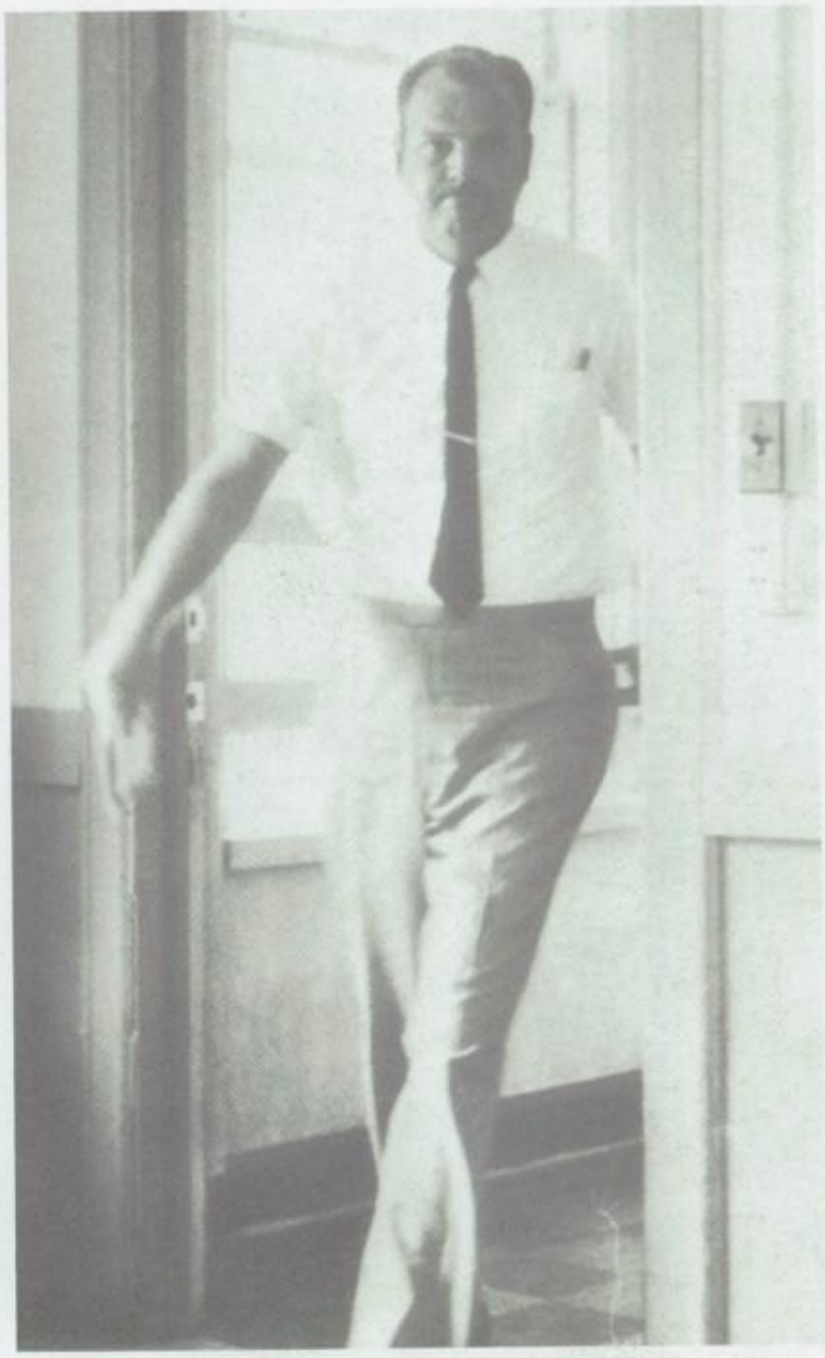
To those fortunate students who have taken his courses-Current Affairs for seniors and Afro-Asian Cultures for juniors and seniors- Mr. O'Rourke is known as a man with an exceptional sense of humor. His continuous joking makes for a very enjoyable class. For this reason students have come to look forward to their class period with Mr. O'Rourke during the school day. Without being overly lax, Mr. O'Rourke provides a break from an otherwise tedious work day. He understands that a teacher does not necessarily have to sacrifice a class's educational values in order for it to be enjoyable.

Mr. O'Rourke's classes, whle being well known for their humorous moments, are also extremely educational. Posessing a vast knowledge of current and historical international affairs, Mr. O"Rourke fills his classes with what has gone on and what is going on in the world so that his students may be well prepared for the world that they will see in the future. Since students enjoy his class they tend to pay attention to and learn from his knowledgable insights.

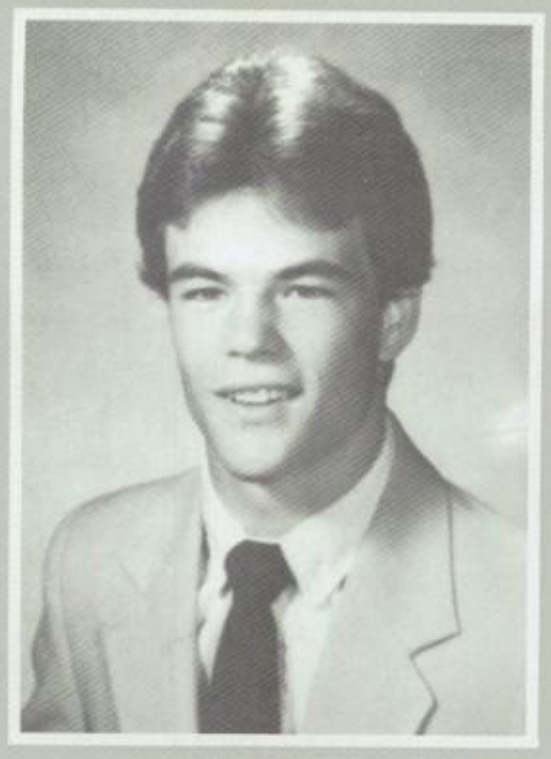
In addition to teaching his regular courses "Happy Jack," as he is affectionatly referred to by some students, is also moderator of the Afro-Asian club, further displaying the dedication and love he has for the students of the Prep.

Well liked and respected by students and teachers alike, Mr. Jack O'Rourke is undoubtedly a big part of the Seton Hall Prep community. We humbly thank him for his unending and enthusiastic dedication and hope that he realized just how grateful we are.

MR. JOHN O'ROURKE, B.A. Seton Hall University, M.A. Seton Hall University, Instructor in American History, Moderator of the Asian History Club.



"O.K. Who swiped the toilet paper?"



Daniel R. O'Callaghan

He was only nineteen. He had graduated from Seton Hall Prep in 1983, the year he lead the wrestling team to a state crown. He was a member of many school activities and the Friendly Sons of Shillelagh Pipe Band in West Orange. He was to begin "boot camp" for the United States Marines in a few days. We were told he even had a dream of competing in the 1988 Olympics. But he gave all this up when he tried to help some teenagers who were in trouble.

Daniel R. O'Callaghan died on October 24, 1984. His death was a direct result of severe head injuried he sustained while rushing to the aid of four teenagers who were being overpowered by a large group of teenagers. Danny is considered a hero because he could not look the other way in a time when his fellow man needed him the most. Throughout the three days he lay in Newark University Hospital struggling for his life, Danny was described as a good Samaritan because he sacrificed his life for someone else. Danny did not have to help, but knowing him the way we did, there was no way he could have stood back and watched it happen.

Dan O'Callaghan left behind his nine brothers and sisters, his parents, and his many friends. People who knew Danny as a friend will probably remember his sense of humor, but most of all his smile because it was "a smile that spoke for him, and it made you feel warm because it came from his heart." This is a perfect description of how Danny was able to make people feel. On many occasions, Danny was able to lift my spirits with just a simple smile and a pat on the back because I always knew he meant it. And because he was a warm, sensitive, and humorous person, I'll never forget Danny O'Callaghan.

"His final deed in life had been to help others in the true spirit of the Good Samaritan. His life showed what being a Chrisitan is all about."

OUR THANKS TO ALL!

From the desk of Terry Lally,
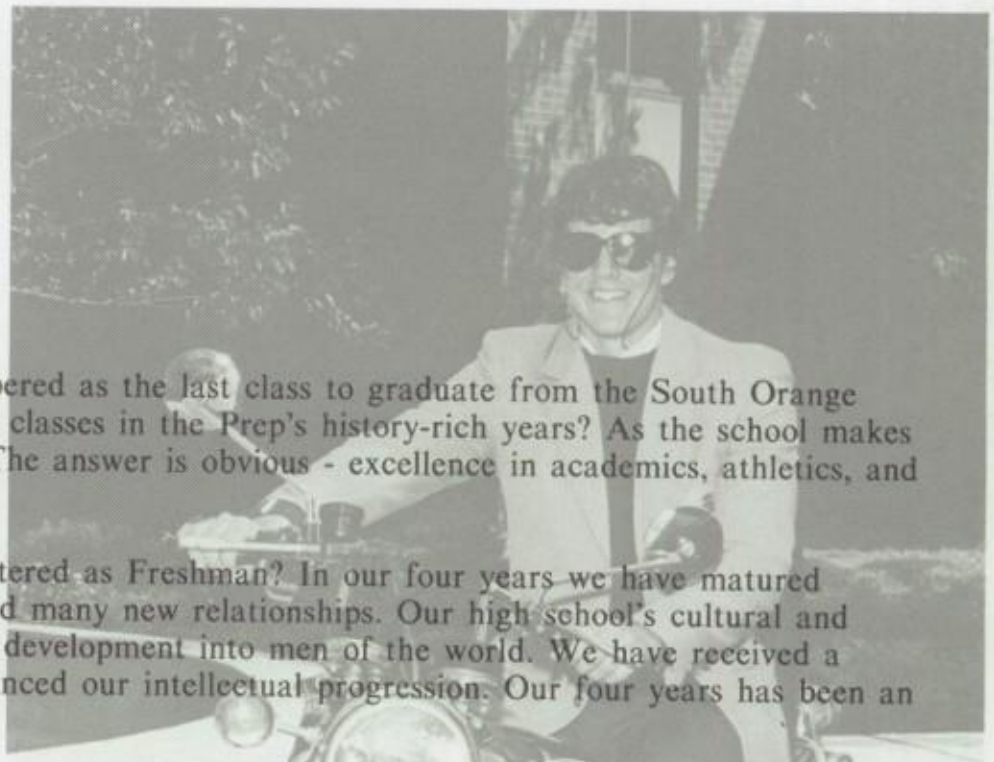
Student Council President



Dear Student Body, Family, and Friends:

The Seton Hall Prep Class of 1985 will always be remembered as the last class to graduate from the South Orange campus. How did our class distinguish itself from previous classes in the Prep's history-rich years? As the school makes its transition to West Orange, what have we left behind? The answer is obvious - excellence in academics, athletics, and activities.

Can we remember all that has happened to us since we entered as Freshman? In our four years we have matured individually, meshed into a tight knit family, and discovered many new relationships. Our high school's cultural and geographical diversity has been an indispensible aid in our development into men of the world. We have received a superior education, thanks to a devoted faculty which enhanced our intellectual progression. Our four years has been an experience that will never forget.

Attending Seton Hall is a very unique, enjoyable, and rewarding period in our lives. Essential to this experience is school spirit. By actively participating in the school's many extracurricular activities, the students have shown great interest in the Prep. Due to the multitude of involved students, Seton Hall is once again on the move in more ways than one. By returning to the spirited support for which the Hall is known, the student body has proven that last year's lack of interest was a fluke. This year the Prep students turned out in swarms to support the basketball, football and hockey teams. The fraternity/booster club, led by a dynamic senior leadership, was able to revive school spirit with innovative programs such as the tailgate parties. Our clubs also enjoyed a spectacular year, especially the literary publications: The Tower, The Spectrum the The Pirate. The key to the activities' success was the devoted participation and desire for excellence by the leaders.

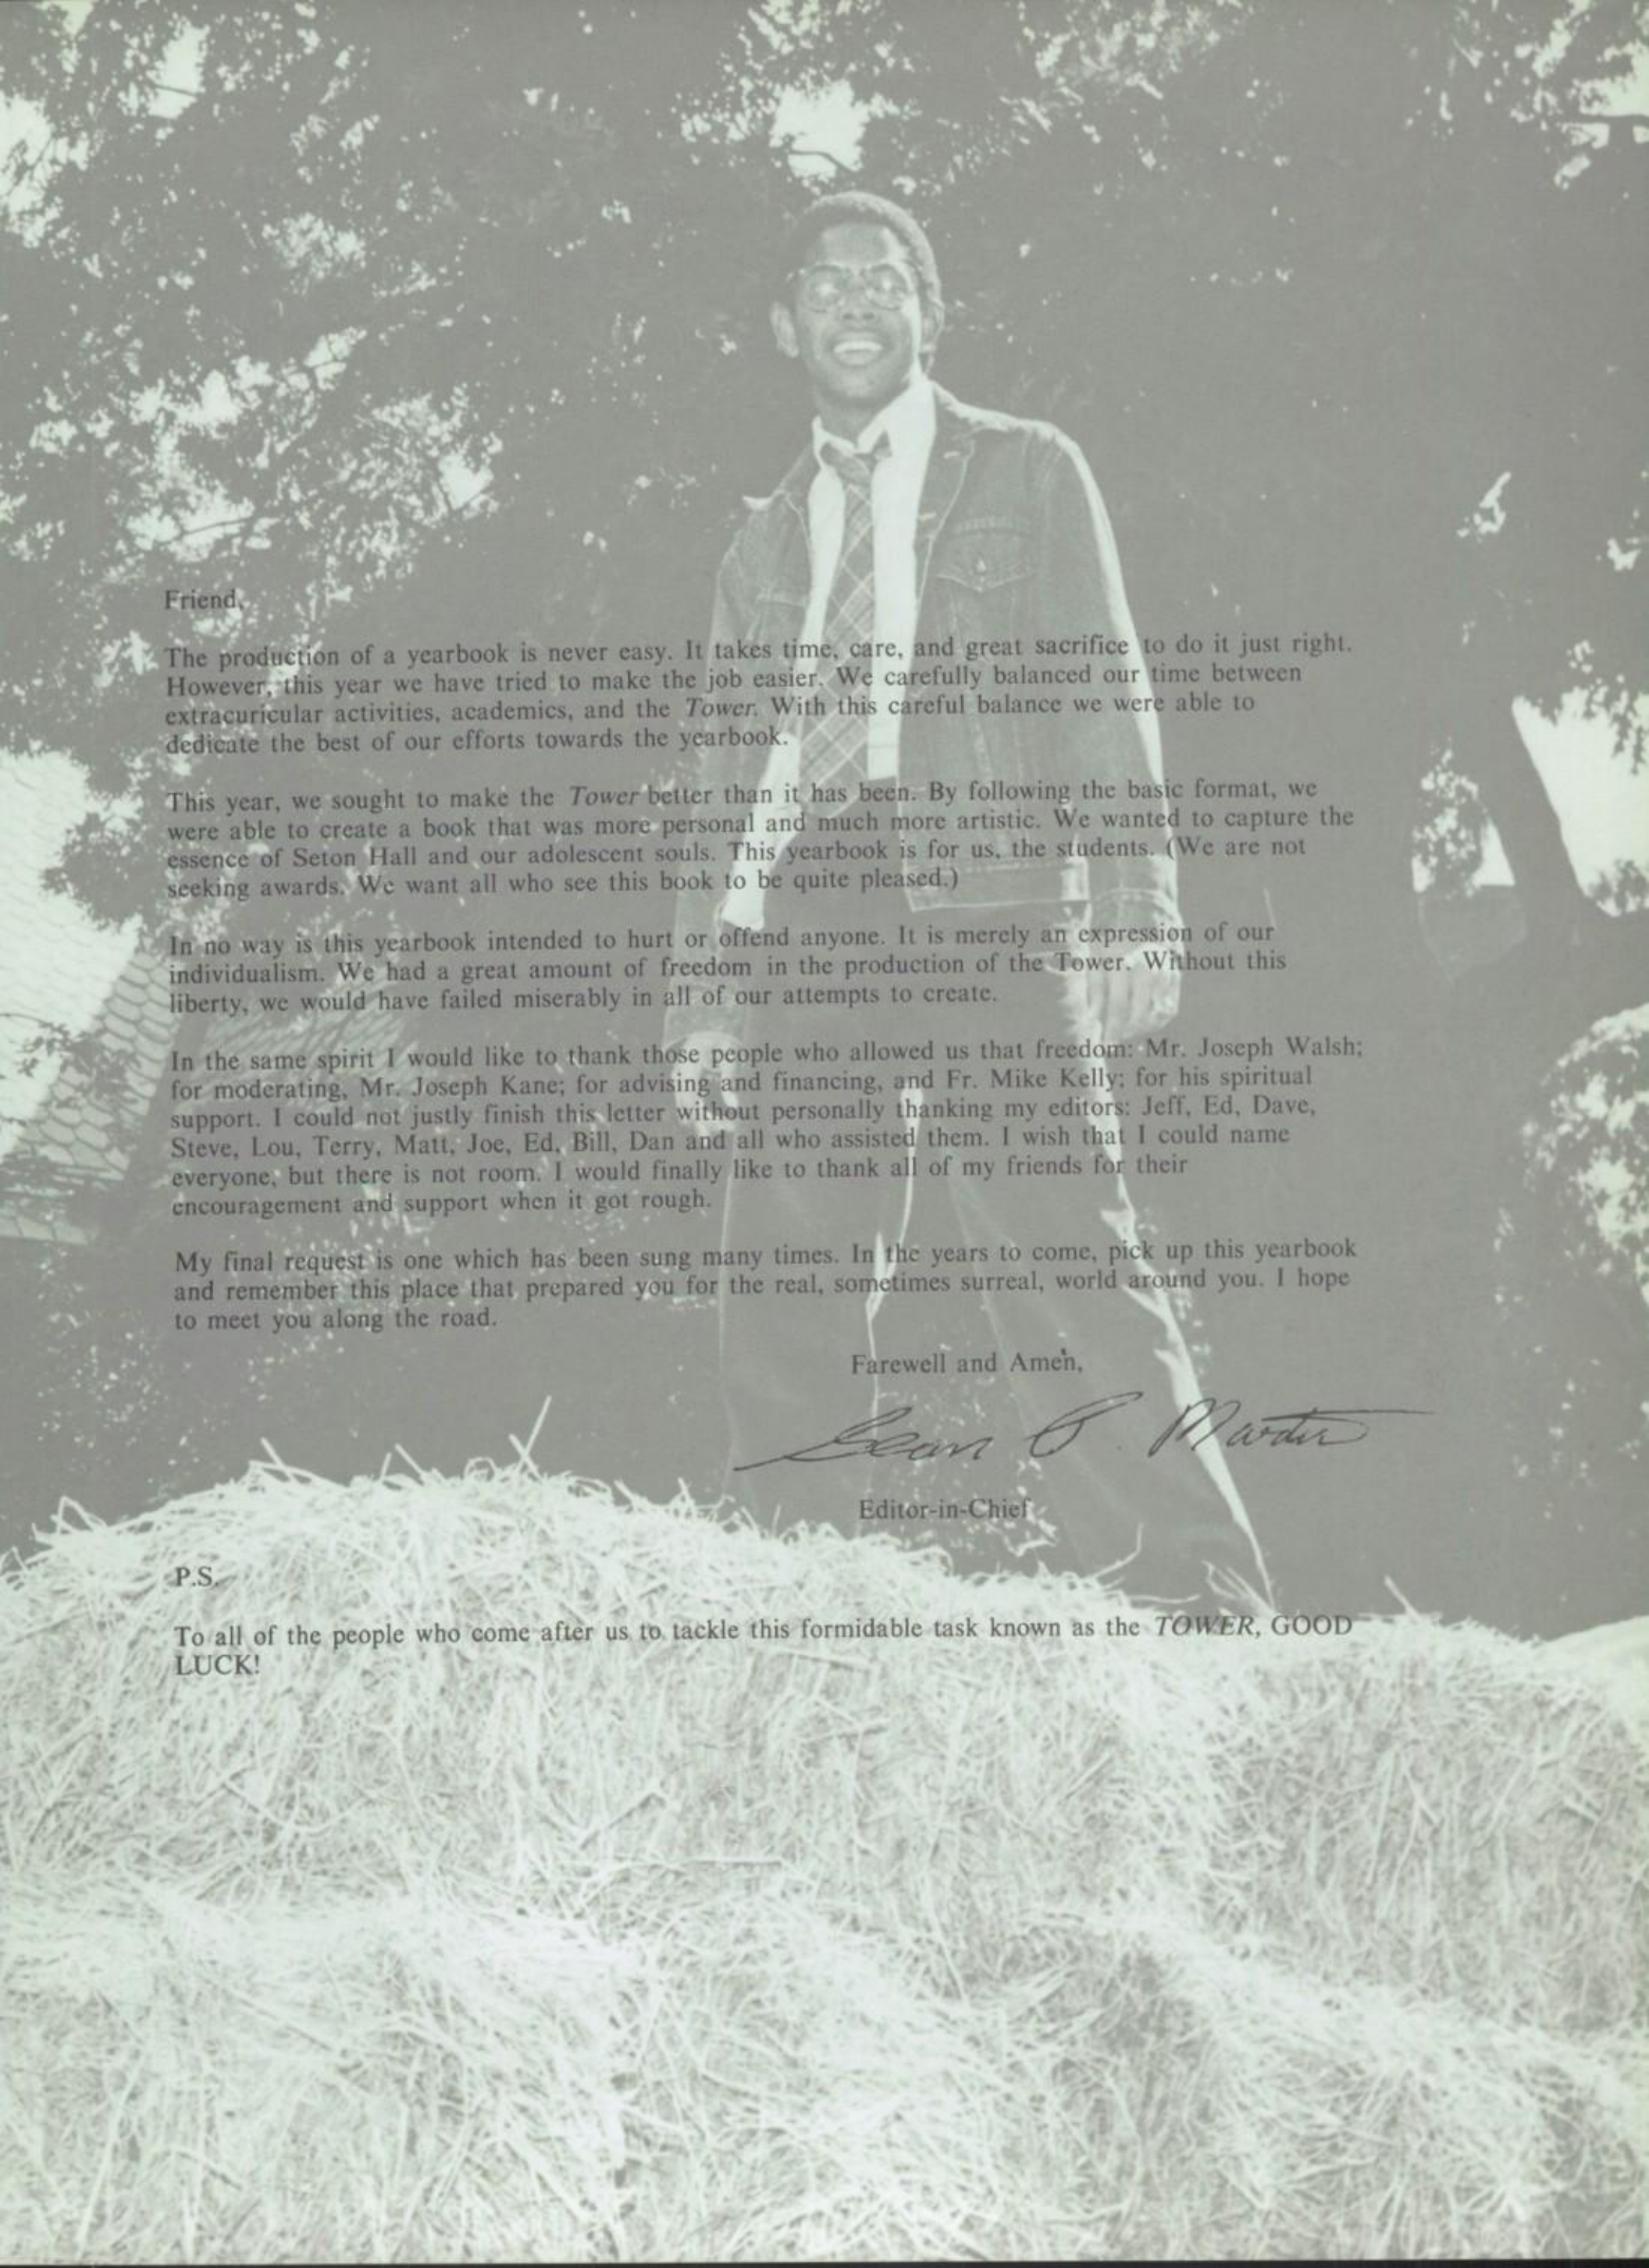
The Prep's support of programs such as the tag days, food drives, and collections for the poor demonstrate the affect of a strong Catholic education on the student body. Realizing that we are much more fortunate than our brothers around the world, the prepsters generously reached out to aid worthy causes. For example, the Student Council donated over $4000.00 through the tag day fundraisers to the Danny O"Callaghan Scholarship Fund, Brad Dalbec, Thomas Reynolds Scholarship Fund, and the Newark fire victims. The student body also proved our concern for our neighbors, both near and far, by supporting the Ethopian Relief cause with clothing and money while giving Christmas gifts to abused children in Orange.

Our four year experience has been extremely rewarding and successful. As the motto, "Hazard Zet Forward", forward no matter what the obstacles, states we have excelled as a family in any endeavor undertaken. I wish the Prep luck as it begins a new era in West Orange. The Class of '85 was an outstanding product of the Prep. The future graduating classes will be breaking new ground, but they shall succeed if they follow the example set this year. As for the Class of '85, I believe that we will represent SHP in society as well as we have for the past four years. Goodbye to my friends, my constituents and brothers in the Class of '85. You will always hold a place in my heart and in Seton Hall history.

Sincerely,

Terry Lally

Terence M. Lally
President, Student Council



Friend,

The production of a yearbook is never easy. It takes time, care, and great sacrifice to do it just right. However, this year we have tried to make the job easier. We carefully balanced our time between extracuricular activities, academics, and the Tower. With this careful balance we were able to dedicate the best of our efforts towards the yearbook.

This year, we sought to make the Tower better than it has been. By following the basic format, we were able to create a book that was more personal and much more artistic. We wanted to capture the essence of Seton Hall and our adolescent souls. This yearbook is for us, the students. (We are not seeking awards. We want all who see this book to be quite pleased.)

In no way is this yearbook intended to hurt or offend anyone. It is merely an expression of our individualism. We had a great amount of freedom in the production of the Tower. Without this liberty, we would have failed miserably in all of our attempts to create.

In the same spirit I would like to thank those people who allowed us that freedom: Mr. Joseph Walsh; for moderating, Mr. Joseph Kane; for advising and financing, and Fr. Mike Kelly; for his spiritual support. I could not justly finish this letter without personally thanking my editors: Jeff, Ed, Dave, Steve, Lou, Terry, Matt, Joe, Ed, Bill, Dan and all who assisted them. I wish that I could name everyone, but there is not room. I would finally like to thank all of my friends for their encouragement and support when it got rough.

My final request is one which has been sung many times. In the years to come, pick up this yearbook and remember this place that prepared you for the real, sometimes surreal, world around you. I hope to meet you along the road.

Farewell and Amen,

Sean O. Porter

Editor-in-Chief

P.S.

To all of the people who come after us to tackle this formidable task known as the TOWER, GOOD LUCK!

Lead Me To Your Door.

The Wild And Windy Night That The Rain Washed Away
Has Left A Pool Of Tears Crying For The Day,
Why Leave Me Standing Here,
Let Me Know The Way

Many Times I've Been Alone And Many Times I've Cried, Anyway You'll Never Know The Many Ways I've Tried
But Still They Lead Me Back To The Long Winding Road,
You Left Me Standing Here, A Long Long Time Ago,
Don't Leave Me Waiting Here,
Lead Me To Your Door.

But Still They Lead Me Back To The Long Winding Road,
You Left Me Standing Here, A Long Long Time Ago,
Don't Keep Me Waiting Here,
Lead Me To Your Door.
